COL. LINDBERGH TO FLY BACK TO UNITED STATES

Return Flight Will Be Made In Short Hops

Col. Lindbergh Being Feted By Mexicans For His Latest Feat

REACHES HIS GOAL FEW HOURS LATE

Went Out Of Way Somewhat Because Of Fog And Winds

Colonel Charles Lindbergh.

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 15.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will fly back to the United States. This time he will make the journey between the two countries in several hops.

These plans were announced by the "lone eagle" who has become the idol of Mexico, virtually every city having set up a clamor to see the famous American flyer.

The trip to Cuba is still to be decided upon. If he makes it, Colonel Lindbergh said, it would probably be made out of Washington. He said he had not decided "yet".

Colonel Lindbergh awoke today in the home of Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, who took him in hand.

The city still reverberated today from the lusty "vivas" which acknowledged Colonel Lindbergh with acclaim—the greatest reception ever given a foreigner in the republic.

A special embassy staff recruited today was necessary to handle the flyer's telegrams.

City Honors Lindy.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 15.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, America's lone eagle, awoke today to find a city still deliriously anxious to shower him with honor and a people more than willing to keep up an everlasting "viva!".

For the daring young flier, history was repeating itself. As was the case when he accomplished his remarkable flight from New York to Paris, the people upon whom he glided down

Accused Woman's Daughter Testifies

YOUNG GIRL TESTIFIES FOR HER MOTHER

RELATES INCIDENT ON MURDER NIGHT

Commonwealth Inquires Into Reports Of Auto Rides With Men By Accused

From Mrs. Ina L. Whitlatch the defendant, who is charged with the murder of her husband, William R. Whitlatch, the spotlight turned to the daughter, Lillian, this morning in courtroom number one of the Lawrence county courthouse, where the trial of Mrs. Whitlatch has been in progress since Monday morning.

All morning the girl, 14 years of age, was on the stand, and before her cross-examination was completed the commonwealth managed to inject into the record testimony which goes to the character of the defendant if the expected rebuttal testimony is produced.

Alert and Glib

If the mother was a hesitant witness, the daughter was directly opposite. Mentally alert and glib of tongue, she answered questions almost before the attorneys had them framed.

Time and again the little girl repeated the revolting phrases alleged to have been used by the dead man, and as they poured from her lips the women on the jury seemed to shudder. The girl seemed sure of her answers.

She was first called just before the close of the afternoon session on Wednesday, but gave little testimony before adjournment. Immediately that court convened this morning she was recalled and immediately began her story of the occurrences prior to the shooting on September 27, 1927.

Substantially, she said: "after supper I went upstairs to my bedroom. There is a register in the floor and through this I heard what went on downstairs. I heard daddy say that if that red-faced —— of a son ever came into the house again he would never go back to Ellwood."

Heard Loud Talking

"I heard loud talking and heard mother cry out, and then I heard three shots. I ran downstairs and daddy said: 'she shot me'. I tried to hold him up and got blood on my dress."

All during the examination in chief the youngster referred to vile names alleged to have been called the mother and her boy by the dead man. She said that Whitlatch had beaten her

IN HALTING MANNER MRS. WHITLATCH TELLS STORY OF SHOOTING

Haltingly, hestitatingly, at times almost inaudible to the jury, Mrs. Ina L. Whitlatch charged with the murder of her husband, William, told the story of the killing to the jury on Wednesday afternoon in Lawrence county court room number one.

It was not a salacious story, not one filled with racy passages, merely the recital of a family life that was punctuated with quarrels and finally ended in the shooting of the head of the household. Merely the story of a woman who is endeavoring to prove to a jury of her peers that she was justified in snuffing out the life of the father of her children.

Hard To Start.

When the woman took the stand Wednesday afternoon it appeared for a time as though court might have to be adjourned while someone induced her to talk. She sat on the witness chair, head down and to the promptings of ex-judge S. Plummer Emery, one of her counsel said not a word. He reminded her that the jury must hear her story, that she could tell it in her own way, and that she was wasting time but no answer came forth. Finally he appealed to the court in an effort to get the woman to talk.

After some fifteen minutes of this she finally began to talk and told the story of the shooting, leading up to it with an account of their family life. She said she was born in Coaltown 42 years ago and after moving around some with her family, married a man named James Atkinson who was later killed in a mine accident in 1910 near Slippery Rock. Two years later she married William Whitlatch to which union was born three children.

Her story of the occurrences on the day of the shooting was that about noon of September 27 she asked Whitlatch for some money. He replied that he had none for her and as he passed her she thrust her hand into his pocket to search. She charges that he then threw her down on the floor and beat her head against the table, breaking dishes and hurting her.

Attacked Her Again.

In the evening after the supper, she alleges that he again began abus-

Several 1928 Tags Are Seen On Autos

In a few minutes this morning as many as ten new 1928 auto tags were seen on cars passing along the streets or parked by the curbs.

The number of the first tag observed was 67-724 on a car parked on Croton avenue.

Most of the numbers seen were below 100,000 showing that many who were early in receiving the new tags were also early in putting them on this the first day that it is allowable for them to be used.

The highest number observed was 469-774 showing that there must be nearly a half million tags issued already this fall for the coming year. Among the other numbers observed were 306-808, 424-790, 57-108, 53-907, 71-183, 324-928, 369-154 and 89-053.

Capital Parley On Coal Strike Appears Doomed

Failure Of Big Operators To Attend Davis' Conference Foreshadows Agreement

DAVIS PRACTICALLY ADMITS DEFEAT

Labor Secretary Suggests Two Ways Coal Industry Can Retain Good Standing

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The effort of Secretary of Labor Davis to get 100,000 striking miners back into the mines before Christmas in the highly important bituminous coal fields of central and western Pennsylvania, Ohio and northern West Virginia appeared doomed today.

While the joint committee of three mine workers and three operators met again today with Davis, any agreement that may be reached will have no effect on the big operators, who have steadfastly refused to join any conference to end the strike that has been in effect for eight months.

Davis practically admitted defeat when he said "it is useless for small operators to attend any conference unless the major operators attend and agree to remedial measures."

"No conference of operators and miners from a limited territory can solve the problems of the entire industry," he added. "Neither the president of the United nor any other government official has the power to compel the industry to cure its own

Arrest Couple In Plot To Extort Sum From Ligonier Man

Former Maid In Home Of Wealthy Coal Dealer Pens Threat Letter

(International News Service)

GREENSBURG, Pa., Dec. 15.—An alleged plot to extort $5,000 from John Seger, wealthy Ligonier coal and lumber dealer, was revealed here today following the arrest of Nellie McCracken, 16, an orphan, and William B. Smith, 50, in a small hut on top of a mountain near here. They were brought to the state police barracks here.

State troopers said the girl admitted writing a letter to Seger, instructing him to place $5,000 in currency in a stone crock by a spring on the outskirts of Ligonier, under a threat of death. The letter was mailed Seger from Latrobe on December 5.

The girl said she had been a maid in the Seger home, and knew them to have much money, according to the troopers.

FAILS TO APPEAR.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 15.—Failure of Marjorie Rambeau to appear for rehearsals was the reason that Gwendolyn Logan Seller was substituted for her role in the cast of "The Vortex," the management of the Music Box theater announced today.

Alienists Claim Remus Was Sane On Day Of Crime

MATTER OF JURY MEMBER TAKEN UP

Text Of Alienists' Report Is Withheld While Attorneys Open Arguments

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

COURT HOUSE, CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 15.—George Remus was sane on October 6, last when he shot and killed his wife, Imogene, the three alienists appointed by Judge Chester R. Shook to study the defendant's mental condition said was their opinion in a report submitted to the court today.

Text Withheld

The text of the report was withheld, while attorneys made arguments with reference to it, the judge merely stating that the alienists' verdict was that Remus was sane.

While the judge was examining the alienists' report, Prosecutor Charles P. Taft informed International News Service that he had taken up with the judge a matter that had to do with the jury.

"It involves one juror," he declared. Taft and the judge had a long conference this morning.

Asked if it was a serious matter, Taft said it was a "nuisance," adding. "It won't stop the trial, however."

Aged Oil Operator Is Heart Victim

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., Dec. 15.—John Wegley, 70, oil lease man and former Kane business man, fell dead as he was about to test some wells on a lease several miles from here today, according to word received in this city. His death was attributed to heart failure.

Coroner H. Clay Heffner of Bradford stated an inquest would not be necessary.

Wegley was a former resident of Kittanning where he lived with a daughter, Mrs. Minnie Foster, several years.

ST. CHARLES ORPHAN ASYLUM AT QUEBEC DESTROYED BY FIRE

Twenty-six Children and One Nun Are Known Dead and Thirty-three More Children Are Missing and Feared Dead — Building Collapses After Blaze Is Under Way.

(International News Service)

QUEBEC, Dec. 15.—Twenty-six children and one nun are known to have perished, and 33 other children are feared to have lost their lives in a fire which completely destroyed the St. Charles orphan asylum here early today. The bodies of the nun and 26 children were recovered, and the other 33 are missing.

Floors of Building Collapse

The floors of the building collapsed and the trapped victims were buried in the flaming wreckage. Firemen were unable to penetrate the smouldering ruins this morning to recover additional bodies.

The building housed 500 children and 40 nuns. Several of the injured were taken to hospitals.

Firemen, police and nuns performed extraordinary feats of heroism in rescuing children from the fire. Under the direction of the nuns, who remained calm in the emergency, many of the children marched out of the building in an orderly manner. Others were carried down ladders to safety before the building collapsed.

The fire started in the basement, police said, gained headway on the second floor and mushroomed through the building.

The flames spread rapidly. The entire staff of the institution was quickly marshalled into a rescue force. The alarm was given by a nun, but many of the children in certain sections of the building found escape cut off. They undoubtedly perished while groping their way through fire and smoke to the stairways and other exits.

The asylum is operated by the Good Shepherd sisters for children of ages ranging from five to 16. All of the children were not orphans. Some were sent there by their parents to be educated.

The fire started shortly after 11 o'clock last night and the embers were still smouldering this morning.

Collapse Is Sudden

The burning walls and floors collapsed so suddenly that despite the presence of mind of the sisters in charge and the fine behavior of the children, it was impossible to escape from a great tragedy. The firemen and nuns risked their lives in saving those who were rescued.

A large crowd which gathered outside the building heard the screams of the children as the walls collapsed.

Two elderly persons who lived in the asylum are believed to have perished. They were employed at the institution.

The children who were saved were given shelter at the mother house of the Good Shepherd and in private homes nearby. The horrors of the tragedy unnerved the youthful survivors, some of whom cried bitterly for their lost companions.

Some of the parents who had placed their children in the orphanage to be educated learned of the tragedy and rushed to the scene. Those who learned that their loved ones were dead or missing rent the air with their cries, while those whose children had been saved rushed to their little ones and joyfully embraced them.

The orphanage is an old historic building and a landmark in the city. It was a large four-story stone structure and was built in 1832.

Clothes Shipped To Aid Families Of Mine Workers

Thirty Thousand Pounds Of Clothing Shipped To Bituminous Fields

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Dec. 15—Thirty thousand pounds of clothing in two railroad cars was shipped to bituminous miners from here today.

One car goes to Pittsburgh for strikers and their families in Union Disarict No. 5 while the other goes to Clearfield for use in District 2.

The clothing was gathered by officials of the United Mine Workers to provide clothing for families of miners thrown out of work by the strike. Union officials said two additional cars would be sent next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15—Plans for the amalgamation of the Underwood Typewriter Company with the Elliott-Fisher Company were approved at a special stockholders meeting of the former company here today. The new company will be known as the Underwood-Elliott-Fisher Company.

Arthur Mometer

Well he landed again, as we knew that he would, this high flying, hard riding kid, and he told them he'd fly to Old Mexico's scenes, and to prove he could do it, he did. Without any flurry or waving of flags, without any idle ado, he climbed in the cockpit and gave 'er the gun, and as usual Lindy went through. The rain clouds might threaten or cloud banks impare, and the rain drench the plane as he flew, but he bothered but little in doing his job, he did what he said he would do. A dauntless young flyer, with iron clad nerves, and a will that says do and its done, and what other folks think is a risky affair, this lad merely laughs and calls fun. He's a high flying hard riding, chance taking lad and his is the courage that sticks, he says what he'll do and then does just that thing, the weather is cool, forty-six.

West North Street Woman Is Badly Burned At Home

Dress Catches Fire From Stove As She Is Preparing Dinner

Mrs. Mabel McKissick, wife of B. F. McKissick of 521 West North street, was terribly burned about eleven o'clock this morning when her dress caught fire from the kitchen stove while she was preparing dinner.

Mrs. McKissick's clothing were entirely burned off including her stockings. She sustained severe burns on her body and limbs. Her condition is considered most serious as it is feared she inhaled some of the flames.

She was removed to the New Castle hospital soon after the accident occurred.

NEW CASTLE CHURCHES PREPARE TO OBSERVE CHRISTMAS SEASON

With the natal day of the Prince of Peace coming on Sunday this year, the beautiful sentiment which clusters around this anniversary will be doubly associated with attractive and appropriate services in every church throughout this city.

For many weeks the church choirs have been making much preparation for special music to be presented on Christmas day. Cantatas written by noted composers and Christmas carols in which the paramount feature is the story of the birth of Christ, will be sung before large congregations.

The children of the Bible school always have a part in this happy and joyous occasion and are glad to take part in the special exercises of story and song which characterizes the day.

The White Gift Christmas, which is one of the most beautiful services in that it is the giving of gifts to others less fortunate, will be carried out by a number of Sunday schools.

Among the churches that will give programs during the Christmas season include the following:

First Christian: "At Bethlehem", one of the most beautiful cantatas written, will be sung on Christmas night by a chorus choir augmented to many voices. A number of choruses from "The Messiah" will also be a part of the program. R. E. Johns, the chorister, will be the director, assisted by Miss Marie Snyder at the piano.

Central Christian: Under the leadership of the choirmaster, William Richards, with Roy Strobel, pianist, a choir of 50 voices will sing "The World's Redeemer" on Sunday evening, Dec. 25.

Second United Presbyterian: The cantata, "Bethlehem" will be presented Christmas night by the choir, led by Miss Ruth McEwen, with Harry Hammond at the organ. On Thursday evening, Dec. 29, the Bible school will have their usual entertainment.

First Baptist: "The Prince of Peace" will be given Sunday evening, Dec. 18, by a chorus choir of 35 voices, with the church chorister, John W. Owens, in charge and Garth Edmundson organist.

Central Prersbyterian: A chorus of 25 voices will sing the cantata, "The Lord of Glory", on Sunday, Dec. 25, at the evening service, with Mrs. J. Johnston Fisher at the organ and Paul A. Welsh leader.

Epworth Methodist: A Christmas fantasy, "The Birthday of the Little Prince" will be given by the Sunday school on Christmas night. The children will be assisted by the choir, which will sing the choruses and carol singing. At the morning service

Three Injured In York Collision

Norman Plitt, New York Giant Pitcher And Two Girl Companions Injured

(International News Service)

YORK, Pa., Dec. 15.—Norman Plitt, pitcher for the New York Giants, and two girl passengers in his car were injured here today, the girls seriously, when the auto was struck by a street car.

Plitt suffered injuries to the chest. The girls, Catherine Munchel and Virginia Seiffert, were removed to a hospital.

Plitt, who is one of the few big leaguers who wear spectacles, lives in York. According to witnesses, he attempted to turn in the center of the street when he was struck by the trolley.

Juryman Will Not Be Ousted In Remus Trial

Judge Shook Reviews Request For Jury Member's Removal, But Does Not Act

(BULLETIN)
By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

COURT HOUSE, CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 15.—The state at the trial of George Remus for wife-murder today made a move to remove John Trautman, one of the jurors, alleging he would be biased if certain evidence was admitted.

The move to remove the juror came simultaneously with the announcement that the three alienists appointed to observe Remus had submitted an opinion to the court that Remus was sane on October sixth last when he shot and killed his wife.

Judge Chester R. Shook after a secret conference with lawyers in his chambers ruled that Trautman could remain on the jury.

Trautman sent for Judge Shook after court adjourned last evening and declared before the court had an opportunity to warn him not to discuss the case that he "would not believe Judge Charles W. Hoffman under oath."

Judge Hoffman is a prominent Cincinnati jurist. He was to have presided in the Remus divorce case. Yesterday Carl Basler, assistant prosecutor attempted to introduce in evidence an affidavit Remus had filed in his divorce case charging Judge Hoffman with prejudice and asked for a change of judges. Attached to this Remus affidavit was a denial by Judge Hoffman that he was prejudiced or biased against Remus.

This evidence was not admitted.

from their skies gave him their hearts.

And, as it was ni Paris, after his long flight, Col. Lindbergh was taken in hand by the American ambassador and got his much-needed sleep under the roof of the American embassy.

Today's plans for the young man who flew from Washington, D. C., to Mexico in 27 hours were still indefinite.

Millions Relieved.

When the flying colonel finally descended from the blue and landed gracefully at Valbuena field, literally millions of persons were relieved of a fear that he suffered mishap. For, according to the time limit he had set himself, he was about an hour late.

But the famous team of "we" was not to blame. Talking to newspapermen of his flight he said:

"The fog was to blame for my being late. The weather was okay as far as the Mexican border, but I ran into fog as I mounted over the foothills of the Sierras.

"After I left Tampico I lost my route and had to be guided solely by compass. I could not help drifting to the west and seem to have followed a large detour, going even farther west than Toluca—as far as Salvatierra and Morelia anyway—and it was the sign of the Toluca railway station that gave me my first idea of my real location. But of course it is impossible to give a complete story of the trip in a few words."

Tremendous Reception.

The reception accorded Col. Lindbergh when he entered the city after his flight was tremendous. Practically all the inhabitants of the federal district crowded the sidewalks, roofs, windows and even the church spires along the route.

A peaceful Caesar of the air had arrived.

All the houses were decorated with Mexican and American flags, the latter making a surprising appearance from unexpected sources.

In Latin custom, the inhabitants showered flowers upon the ambassadorial car as it progressed and the air was continually filled with shouting and cheering.

Lindbergh landed at Valbuena field at 2:39 p. m. (3:30 eastern standard time) coming in from the west with an escort of nine Mexican planes.

American Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow was the first person to greet the flier on Mexican soil. With his hands outstretched the ambassador was waiting when Lindbergh stepped out of the cabin of the Spirit of St. Louis.

Seizing Lindbergh's hand, the ambassador asked:

"Are you tired?"

"Not very," said Lindbergh.

After being assured that his plane would be absolutely safe, possibly recollecting at the moment a similar scene in Paris when another huge crowd, anxious to greet him, almost wrecked his "partner", Lingbergh was taken to the presidential box.

There President Calles, not content with greeting him with a handshake, threw both arms about the young aviator and impulsively hugged him.

Throughout the evening telegrams of congratulations from President Coolidge down through officialdom to just "plain folks" poured into the embassy

One of the first things Lindbergh did when he reached the embassy was a request that a long distance telephone call be put in for his mother. When the connection was complete, he said:

"We made it, mother. I have already been presented with a fine Mexican sombrero."

And this sombrero seemed to please Lindbergh immensely. For, upon being asked what pleased him most on his arrival he said:

"The sombrero which was presented to me when I landed."

ills, or meet with any agency set up for that purpose."

He "tentatively" suggested that if the coal industry is to "take its place as a growing concern among the other great industries, there is choice of but two ways in that direction:

Suggests Two Measures.

"Either the industry may be left to sing of its own weight in the morass in which it now is. The stronger elements may absorb the insolvents and thus take control of the whole, on the principle of the survival of the fittest. The desired stabilization of the industry would thus be attained, but at fearful cost to those too weak to survive and with further hardship to labor during the process.

"Or congress, which alone has power to act, may heed the suggestion which President Coolidge has twice offered. The president suggested a special arbitration commission to act in emergency when the nation's coal supply is threatened."

Davis said that certain representatives at the present conference pointed out, however, that as "emergency is a chronic state in coal," the president's suggestion might have to be carried further.

The question was raised whether supervision of the coal industry might not have to be given to a body similar to the interstate commerce commission.

Lindy's Mother Declines To Go To Mexico City

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Dec. 15. — Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, by telegram today declined the invitation of Ambassador Dwight L. Morrow, that she spend the holiday season in Mexico with her famous son.

The telegram said that she would hardly have time and also that she did not believe she should share in any of her son's glory.

"My idea," she told friends, "is that this is a man's celebration and a woman has no place in it."

IN HALTING MANNER MRS. WHITLATCH TELLS STORY OF SHOOTING

ing her and fearing for her life she reached for a revolver she kept on a shelf and fired three times. "God knows," she concluded, "I did not mean to kill him, but I had to protect myself."

Whitlatch would not have her son, James Atkinson, come near the house the woman said, and had ordered her to keep him away. He often referred to the boy in vile terms she said and threatened to kill him if he came near and also kill her. At various times in their married life he had mistreated her, she told the jury, several times locking her out of the house at night, and at one time putting her out in her night clothes. He was abusive, she said, hardly spoke to her at times, and at other times beat her.

Denies Cursing.

Mrs. Whitlatch denied ever having sworn or cursed at her husband, and emphatically denied the testimony of Mrs. Mattie Hoffman who had testified that she saw a gun in Mrs. Whitlatch's lap the night before the shooting.

The defendant was not on the stand long, her counsel apparently being relieved to get her off the stand. She was a poor witness for herself, and created what appeared to be a poor impression. Her cross examination was brief, Attorney Braham asking her but few questions, but these few tending to attack her credibility. Several of them had the appearance of being asked for the purpose of rebutting her later.

Daughter Goes On Stand.

Just before the adjournment of court Lillian Whitlatch, 14 year old daughter of the defendant, went on the stand and at adjournment had told but little of the incidents alleged to have occurred in the house on the night of the shooting.

Prior to Mrs. Whitlatch's going on the stand, Dr. S. W. Perry testified to attending Whitlatch. Miss Frances Quinn, a nurse, testified to having assisted. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reese were recalled and identified the dying declaration of Whitlatch. The commonwealth then offered in evidence the dying declaration of Whitlatch and the gun and shells used. At two fifteen District Attorney Bryan announced that the commonwealth had closed its case.

Attorney Orville Brown opened for the defense and said that they would show that the defendant, Mrs. Ina Whitlatch had been subjected to many indignities, that she had been mistreated by her husband and that finally in self defense she shot him.

The court room was jammed on Wednesday afternoon, scores being forced to stand. The indications are that the jury will get the case about Friday morning.

on a number of occasions and as a result she had ear trouble. She testified to his putting Mrs. Whitlatch out in the snow while they lived in the seventh ward.

Cross-examined by Attorney W. Walter Braham, it soon became apparent that the plan of the commonwealth was to attack the credibility of the witness. She was asked if she had not told her two aunts, following the shooting, that she did not know anything about the trouble. This she denied.

She was asked if her mother ever swore at her father and she replied that she had not. Then Mr. Braham began a line of questioning which had been refused by the court on three other occasions, that concerning the relations of the defendant and her daughter with men other than the father.

Denies Everything

The first question brought a vigorous objection from Ex-Judge S. Plummer Emery, defense counsel, and the jury was retired while the counsel fought it out. The commonwealth offered to prove that the witness and her mother had gone out with other men, and that because of these relations the witness was biased and prejudiced. After an argument lasting some 30 minutes the jury was recalled and the questioning allowed.

Q. "Did you and your mother ever go out with other men?"

A. "No."

Q. "The night before the shooting when you and your mother went to Mrs. Hoffman's in the seventh ward, did you come straight home?"

A. "Yes, we went to the bus and went on home."

Q. "Isn't it a fact that two strange young men picked you up near Rearic's on East Washington street and gave you a ride?"

A. "We met two strange men near the New Castle Dry Goods store and they insisted that we get in the car. We went straight home."

Q. "Isn't it a fact that you and your mother went into the house and then came back out and went for a ride out the Butler or Ellwood roads?"

A. "No."

Q. "Isn't it a fact that you and your mother frequently went out in a Whippet with other men?"

A. "No, not a Whippet."

Q. "Did you ever go out riding with a man named Art Rich, or a man Cavalier, or a man named Hershey Seward?"

A. "No."

Q. "Isn't it a fact that one night two men came to the house at 10 o'clock and little Willie insisted that he be taken along for the ride, and your mother told the men to come back about 12 o'clock. And isn't it a fact that they came back at 12 and Willie again insisted that he be allowed to go along?"

A. "That's a lie."

Q. "Isn't it a fact that you and Willie had an argument and that Willie said if you didn't agree with him he would tell your father about you and your mother?"

A. "That's a lie."

Q. "Didn't you and your mother go out at nights and stay out until long past midnight?"

A. "No."

Q. "Do you know that your father had your mother arrested before Squire Coates on a charge of attempting to kill him with a knife?"

A. "No."

Following the questions Ex-Judge Emery asked that all the questions and answers be stricken from the record, arguing that the commonwealth had not proved its offer. To this Mr. Braham replied that they would produce witnesses who would contradict the testimony of Lillian Whitlatch. The motion to strike from the record was refused and opened the way for rebuttal witnesses for the commonwealth.

Neighbor Called

The last witness called before the noon recess was R. C. Rineberger of East Cherry street, who had been a neighbor of the Whitlatchs on Clayton street. He testified that Whitlatch had sworn at and abused Mrs. Whitlatch on numerous occasions and had put her out of the house one night in February.

Court adjourned following the cross-examination of this witness.

Robbery Reported At Laurel Avenue Home

HE WANTS THE MARINES

THOSE who would like the people of the United States to believe that Nicaragua is groaning under the iron heel of the United States marines get little comfort or moral support from General Jose Maria Moncada, than whom, it would seem, none is more justified in leading the groaners' chorus.

It was General Moncada who commanded the liberal forces against the Diaz regime. It was he who, with his whole army, laid down arms when the United States decreed that the fighting should end and the Diaz regime continue unopposed. It is he who is the candidate of the liberals for president of Nicaragua. Knowing Diaz has had the support of the United States and that he may be a candidate for reelection, what does General Moncada say of this country?

"We liberals want the United States marines in Nicaragua. We believe that the marines' officers such as now command our constabulary can best supervise the free elections necessary to put a representative government in office. Further, we believe that the United States owes it to Nicaragua to keep her marines there until such elections have taken place. It is her duty and obligation."

The groaners here will dig deep among those words to find a sympathetic groan from the "wronged" liberal leader. They are more likely to read them and weep at the discovery that they have been wasting their tears.

But General Moncada is not less mistaken than his zealous followers here are disillusioned. The United States owes nothing to Nicaragua and the only business the United States marines have in Nicaragua is the protection of American lives and property. Uncle Sam interferes with the backyard squabbles of his neighbors only when his own windows are broken.

TWO WAGE-EARNERS FOR FIVE PERSONS

IN A family of five two must be wage-earners if a high standard of living is to be maintained. Such is the conclusion of Professor Irving Fisher.

Apparently this is just about the present proportion, as an analysis of the census figures by the New York Times indicates. Obviously if the husband alone is to be the wage-earner there must be less than three children. This condition is not unusual in these days. A smaller number is more nearly normal, especially among those who could afford to support a larger number.

It is rather late in the day to look upon the husband as the sole bread winner. The standard of living impels more and more married women to keep the places they held at marriage or seek new ones. The ultimate effect of this tendency cannot yet be determined. The cause may be more precisely discerned as the substitution of the apartment for the single house. Women have been "emancipated" in this sense. Whether they are really any freer is a subject for endless debate.

EVERYBODY GOES ON

MR. HOOVER will go on being busy and useful as secretary of commerce. General Dawes will go on being vice president, patiently presiding over the senate and trying not to yawn. Mr. Willis will go on being a sensation from Ohio and rattling the glass in the senate skylights when he lets his voice out to its full capacity. Mr. Curtis will go on being a senator from Kansas, and treading softly about the senate chamber. Former Governor Lowden will go on thinking about agricultural problems—and all, even Mr. Hoover, will go on doing some thinking about delegates but chiefly devoting themselves to something else.

And the American people will go on, it is to be hoped, says the Springfield Republican, and decide, without being too much influenced by political manipulation, which of these, or some one else, would make the best president.

Sir Vincent Meredith, who has been elected chairman of the board and chairman of the executive committee of the Bank of Montreal, has been connected with that institution for sixty hours. During this time he has risen from a junior clerkship to a position among the leaders of finance and industry in the Dominion. Sir Vincent is a native of London, Ont., who after finishing a course in the local schools went to London, England, to complete his education. Upon his return he entered the service of the Hamilton branch of the Bank of Montreal and in 1889 was advanced to the position of manager of the home office. For many years he has held the presidency of the bank, which is one of the most powerful financial institutions of Canada. He is a director of numerous great trading and industrial corporations and has been active in the promotion of many public welfare movements.

We are told that crabs chew their food with their legs. And some people we know do their hustling with their mouths.

Even betting has taken on a vicious aspect in school sporting circles. A trial in Pittsburgh proved a young student who acted as principal in some bets took the money and kept it and everybody was out but him. To some this would seem a smart trick, but it is not on the square, and that is all there is to it.

So far very few people have asked for gold coins at the banks for Christmas gifts. We wonder if very many people do that. We seldom see the color of a gold coin at any time and have our doubts about the gold Christmas. We have seen white Christmases all right. That is, white with snow.

At this time of year floods are headed south and those who live in the low areas are watching the water with anxious eyes. We had a little taste of floods here, on a very small scale, and are satisfied with what we have. We are in favor of relief for the south flood-area states, but recognize that nature is pretty hard to control.

A woman had a very large platter of buckwheat honey given her by a friend in the country, more than she needed and wishing to be neighborly, sent her little daughter over to a neighbor telling her she could have some of it if she sent back a dish for it. The little one came back with this reply: "Mrs. —— says she doesn't like buckwheat cakes."

If you want to be able to meet your Christmas expenses in the proper way next year the thing to do is to take out a Christmas savings club. More than $260,000 was paid out this year and if you were missed it was your own fault. The clubs are starting now so get in right at the beginning and carry right through.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 15.—Every American and every community are encouraged by proofs of progress in the United States.

Major Horace Bell, editing The Porcupine here in 1881, wrote about Los Angeles' early history in his "Reminiscences of a Ranger" and thus describes the "Bella Union", principal Los Angeles hotel at the time of the Civil War.

"The Bella Union was a one-story flat roof adobe, with a corral in the rear. In the Bella Union corral extending to Los Angeles street were numerous pigeonholes, or rooms for guests, six by nine feet in size, six or seven feet high. Guests slept on the adobe floor in that institution advertised as 'the best hotel south of San Francisco'. If a very aristocratic guest came along, he was permitted to sleep on the little billiard table."

Dozens of big hotels now dot Los Angeles, from the Ambassador, sitting in its own park, to the Biltmore in the business center. The Biltmore is building an addition to cost more than $4,000,000 and include the biggest banqueting hall in the world.

Los Angeles has changed since Don Sepulveda ruled this territory, and with his native mustang, in a nine-mile race, beat an English thoroughbred race horse brought all the way from the East "to clean the old Don out of his gold slugs and a couple of thousand head of cattle".

Eastern bankers, who have asked this writer about California's "Bank of Italy" with its stock selling for far more than a billion dollars, and 165 branches in the one state, will be interested in an explanation of the A. P. Giannini success supplied by George Young, publisher of the Los Angeles Examiner.

"Ordinarily at four o'clock bankers are through for the day. When Giannini's banks close in the afternoon every man in the bank goes out and spends the rest of the evening developing new business for the bank. And they are up in the morning doing the same thing before the bank opens.

"Employes, be it remembered, get 45 per cent of Bank of Italy profits. They work for their own pockets."

This state, of which the native Indians were the laziest humans on earth, now has, in spite of its mild climate, a most marvelously energetic race of white men.

What applies to Los Angeles and the rest of California, applies to this whole western country. Everybody is in a hurry, and actually working, not going through the motions.

W. H. Byrnes, president of the San Francisco Union Stock Yards, wants the world to know, as it should, that he paid $5 a pound, live weight, for the grand champion Southdown lamb.

Henry Ford's man telephones an invitation to ride in the new Ford car to Ford's gigantic new plant near Los Angeles.

Mr. Vandeventer of the Oakland Times and Charles P. Howard of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce send word you must be here January 5th and see the future greatest city in California.

R. A. Grady says the Kiwanis Club of Duluth insists on your going there.

John F. Humburg wants you in San Francisco to inspect that city's "new 1,500-acre playground, on the peninsula, for eastern tourists".

Bryan Akers, publisher of the Arizona Gazette, says you have got to visit Arizona's Salt River Valley to see what has been done in "cotton, citrus, dairying and winter vegetables". Chambers of Commerce of every county in the state join in that hospitable invitation.

Miss Grace M. Sparkes, secretary of the Yavapai County Chamber of Commerce, says that's the place in Arizona that you must see.

O. J. Faulkner, president of the Prescott (Ariz.) Kiwanis Club, and the Rotary Club of Prescott, wants you to see their "mile high city, pine clad hills, new Hassayampi Hotel".

Dan J. Seaman, publisher of the Prescott Monday Morning Star, wants to explain to you on the spot, in Arizona, the Colorado river problem.

This western country is energetic and hospitable.

And it hopes and believes that it is going to solve the rubber problem, including the problem of labor.

Fred McCarter, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Salinas, north of here, tells you over long distance telephone how it will be done. The Guayule shrub, pronounced Wyule, requires no irrigation, moisture once a year is enough. The shrub grows four years, is then harvested, ground up, the rubber floats, wood goes to the bottom.

The shrub yields 1,000 pounds of rubber to the acre.

The company guarantees the farmer $25 to $40 a year per acre. Plants are being tested in every county. One 2,000-acre patch will be planted this month. No tapping trees or gathering sap. All machine and harvester work. A crop every four years.

There are seven Guayule factories in Mexico now. The plants are gathered wild and hauled to factories on donkey backs.

Americans will apply modern industrial methods to rubber production and undersell the world's cheapest labor-produced rubber. And the 20 per cent of rosin in Guayule, 10 per cent more than needed, will make a perfect mixture when the Guayule is combined with other rubber.

General Motors, United States Rubber and Ford take notice of what Intercontinental Rubber is doing with Guayule.

IF A MAN CALLS YOU—

A fool, don't prove the case by getting mad.
A heretic, he may be branding himself as a bigot.
A bolshevik, it may be because his own profits have been jeopardized.
A crank, remember that even a crank gets some action.
A crook, it may be because he is unable to see straight himself.
A hypocrite, he may be trying to get his eyes off himself.
A failure, you don't have to accept his judgment.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

A LAWYER'S SIX RULES

I had a talk with a lawyer the other day and he said he had run across six sayings that impressed him as important.

They are:
Think big;
Talk little;
Love much;
Laugh easily;
Pay cash, and
Be kind.

He has found these things important in his business.

In the first place, a man must think big. It is just as easy to think five hundred dollars as to think fifty cents. If you think big actions your actions are liable to be big.

Don't think too highly of yourself, but think highly of your job.

Talk little. A man who says nothing is always given credit for what he doesn't know. The Bible says somewhere that "Even a fool is counted wise when he holdeth his peace."

Love much. Nothing that amounts to anything in this world is done without love. You have to love a man or a dog or a job before you are able to criticize intelligently.

Laugh easily. A sense of humor gets over many a hard place and solves many a difficult problem. Things can be laughed away that can't be got rid of in any other way.

Work hard.

The man who loves his work is fortunate, and the man who is never happy unless he is at work is liable to go forward.

Pay cash. Don't buy anything until you have the money to pay for it.

Buying things on time may be sometimes necessary, but, as a rule, we should wait until we get the money before we buy anything.

And to be kind is one of the best rules we can have.

We never regret anything we have done in the spirit of kindness.

Tomorrow—Divorce.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

CAN YOU?

There have been famous horses in the world and many of their names will be remembered, from Pegasus to Man-'O-War. Some have been sadly neglected, many forgotten. They enabled riders to win glory for himself and herself,—perhaps saved a nation, but their names are not by-words today. No picture or statue of Joan of Arc is shown but what she is astride of a noble steed. Joan of Arc saved Orleans and France, but what about the horse?

Charles Lawrence, President of the Wright Aeronautical Corporation, was sitting in at a Conference of notables who were planning a celebration for Lindbergh—(they are still celebrating Lindbergh and will be for some time yet.) The inventor of the "Wright Whirl Wind Motor" which propelled the "Spirit of St. Louis" across the Atlantic, offered various suggestions for the celebration, so did the others. Someone finally said:

"Lawrence, this is hardly fair to your motor and you engineering skill which made Col. Lindbergh's flight possible, and you are not getting any publicity. Something ought to be done about it."

Lawrence thought for a moment and then replied:

"It was my motor and it stood the acid test, but let me ask you one thing. Can any one of you tell me the name of Paul Revere's horse?"

Just Folks

SUSPECTED.

They watch me coming out
And they watch me coming in,
Now whenever I'm about
Their whisperings begin.
But I have an artful way
As they'll learn on Christmas day.

I know they search my car,
I know they search my room;
Very cute those rascals are,
And the cheeks of mother bloom
With the flowers of mirth, as she Sees them slyly trailing me.

But when Christmas morning comes
They will wake to glorious fun.
Wake to dolls and horns and drums
And they'll wonder how 'twas done,
And at mother standing by
I shall slyly wink an eye.

Yes, despite their watchful care
I shall get their presents in.
They will all be gathered there
When the Christmas joys begin.
They'll find trinkets, great and small,
They had never guessed at all.

So through life I would that I
Could so sly and gentle be,
That beneath each lovely lie
Never once those eyes could see.
Would that I could fool them so
That my worst they'd never know.

CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

"EAT YOUR SPINACH!"

Yes, I have a small daughter who doesn't want to eat spinach, too. There are many other things she doesn't want to eat. In fact, it often seems that she doesn't care for anything that we are able to get for her dinners. But she is strong and healthy and rosy-cheeked. Watching her day in and day out, one finds that she eats plenty of almost everything.

She just likes to pretend that she doesn't like things. She gets more attention that way than she would get by settling down to matter-of-fact eating.

And that's the case with thousands of children. There is so much talk about the necessity of eating spinach and cereals and what-not, that the children see a chance to get a whole lot of attention out of refusing to eat these things. Thus they make themselves feel important. And we all like to feel important. We start early.

We had long suspected that our daughter was being spoiled by our too close and constant attention to her spinach. But now we know it. We have found it in a book.

"Cultivating the Child's Appetite" is the title of a new book by Dr. Charles Anderson Aldrich of Chicago.

Dr. Aldrich puts the weight of long and scientific observation and experiment behind his statements and conclusions. What we had only surmised, he has proved.

And Dr. Aldrich makes the startling recommendation that parents quit badgering their children about the food they eat or do not eat. He even recommends that children be not compelled to eat food that they have a decided aversion for.

When you come to think about it, Dr. Aldrich may be right.

This wise physician has observed and recorded many cases of children who have been starved by parents who have been too solicitous about the calories and the vitamines, and have scolded the children at meals until the meals become horrors to the children.

For many children, meal-time is a terrible time to look forward to. They know they'll be scolded, cajoled, coaxed and beaten, by way of making them eat plenty of the things that are good for them. And so the children get sick of meals and of food.

Well, Dr. Aldrich, our Patricia thanks you for writing that book. She eats her spinach now—if she wants to.

Scotland Yard Men Carry Murder Bag For Crime Study

(International News Service)

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The "murder bag" is the latest addition to the equipment of the detectives of Scotland Yard, Britain's famed crime detection headquarters.

It is a brown leather bag packed with scientific instruments and other articles essential to the investigation of grave crimes. Five of these have so far been provided, chiefly to chief inspectors when they go out to assist provincial police in elucidating murder mysteries.

Each of the murder bags contains the following articles:

Complete apparatus for taking fingerprints.

Two test tubes for specimens, such as hair or bits of clothing.

Two magnifying glasses.

Two pairs of rubber gloves.

One rubber apron.

Scissors and large and small forceps.

Disenfectant, towel, and soap.

Tape, tape measure, and electric torch.

A two foot rule, compass, and one pair of handcuffs.

Apparently the authorities include the handcuffs on a presumption that when a Scotland Yard man goes out on a case he returns with his man.

$35,000,000 Warship Joins British Fleet

(International News Service)

LIVERPOOL, Eng., Dec. 15.—Britain's latest battleship, the Rodney, which has cost $35,000,000 to construct, has left Cammell Laird's yard here to take her place in the British Atlantic Fleet. She will join her sister ship Nelson at Portsmouth navel base.

Bombproof decks for launching airplanes, a specially strengthened case to resist torpedo attacks, and oil-fired boilers driven by geared turbines, are a special feature of this giant battleship.

She is 702 feet long and 100 feet wide and carries three sixteen inch guns in each of her three forward turrets, twelve six inch guns aft, and a number of smaller armaments.

Semi-Rigid Airship For 30 Passengers To Be Built Soon

(International News Service)

LONDON, Dec. 15.—A semi-rigid airship that will carry a paying load of 30 passengers with their baggage, and six tons of cargo and mails, at a speed of 50 miles an hour, is one of the possibilities of the near future.

Designs for such a craft have been completed, and it is hoped that construction will be taken in hand in the next year.

The scheme is being promoted by British Airships, Limited, a London aeronautical company. "We believe that the future of profitable commercial aviation lies with the semi-rigid airship rather than with the airplane," the secretary of the company declared. "It is true that the airplane is capable of greater speed, but the airship has the compensating advantages of distance-range and cargo-carrying capacity. The maximum cost of the semi-rigid craft will be $130,000."

Silky cloth, strong enough to be made into clothing, is the latest product which the chemist's magic is extracting from hitherto wasted cornstalks.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT

"When that voice within me whispered 'Spring is here!' I felt that I couldn't stay in that dark cave for another minute," continued Rattler, keeping his glittering eyes fixed on Peter. "I had been lying still, though, for such a long time that when I tried to move I found I was stiff. Ugh! Straining every muscle, at last I gave a wriggle. Then another, and another. Ah, now my scales were limbering up! Now my tail! Suddenly I felt warm all over. The cave was growing stuffier every second. I made for the doorway. My start was slow, but before I had gotten half way to the exit I knew I was going to crawl as good as ever I had, thank goodness! Finally I poked my head out into the open. And what do you think I saw?"

"I don't know. Snakes, maybe!" ventured the Boy.

"Right-o!" hissed Rattler. "Snakes. I was not the first Serpent to hear the call of the New Year. Several of my friends had beaten me to the ledge. I hurried to join them.

"'Hello!' said I to one fellow whom I had known quite well before I went to sleep. 'How are you feeling, old chap?'

"But I might as well have hissed to the moon. That fellow would not answer me. He was busy admiring himself, standing on his tail to do it, and suddenly he began to shake his rattles. What a noise he made! It made me angry to have him rattle right in my face, and so I began to shake mine. If that fellow wanted a fight he should have it. He rattled louder. I was so mad I could have struck him, and I don't know but I should have if just then a sweet hiss had not sounded in my ear. Swaying, I looked straight into the eyes of the most beautiful lady in Snakedom. And what do you think she said?"

"DON'T MIND THAT NOISY FELLOW I LIKE THE SOUND OF YOUR RATTLES MUCH BETTER!"

"I don't know," said the Boy, for the second time. "Hello, maybe!"

"She said more than that," replied Rattler, promptly. "She said, 'Oh, don't mind that noisy fellow, Mr. Serpent. I like the sound of your rattles much better!'

"I was so proud then that if it hadn't been for my tight skin I should have swelled up and burst. But I could only stammer my thanks.

"'How beautiful you are!' sighed I. 'And how glittering and stony your stare!'

"Ah, yes, Two-Legs," continued Rattler, softly. "'Twas love at first sight!"

Pittsburgh Man Offers To Act As Woman Executioner

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—"Maudlin sentimentality, which prevents women getting the same punishment as men sickens me," said Floyd J. B. Kemerer, steel company inspector, today as he reiterated his offer to Gov. A. V. Donahey of Ohio to act as the "executioner" of Velma West, confessed hammer murderess.

Kemerer has written the Ohio governor for the privilege of electrocuting Mrs. West, but inasmuch as the Painesville woman has not even been tried yet his offer is reported to have received little consideration.

"A she-devil is more cruel, more vindictive and more capable of making life an inferno than any man who ever lived," Kemerer asserted. "I know what that poor devil West went through."

Kemerer, a mild-mannered man, was divorced last September after being married nine years. His four children died soon after birth. Since his discharge from the army, he has been employed by a local steel company.

Rocks Tell Story Of Indians' Battle

BEND, Ore., Dec. 15.—The story of a hot battle between two Indian tribes, the Shoshones and probably the Bannocks, has been read from hieroglyphics found carved on the basaltic walls of Dry River, near here. The story was read by Nipo Strongheart, known as Chtu Tum Nah of the confederated tribes of the Yakimas.

One brave of the Elk clan was particularly valorous, Strongheart said. He took at least 20 scalps.

In sand below the picture writing were found quantities of arrowheads and teeth of bear, beaver, elk and deer.

Motor Burns Out In Store Window

Some excitement was occasioned Wednesday at the place of business of the New Castle Dry Goods company on Washington street when a motor operating the mechanical figures in the window of the store burned out. Considerable smoke was caused but there was no loss other than that sustained in the burning of the motor.

The crowd became so large that in order to protect the plate glass windows of the store that boards had to be placed in front of them for a time. The city firemen were not called as employes of the store were able to control the situation.

MISTAKE WORKERS FOR SALVATION ARMY PEOPLE

Adjutant John Parkins of the Salvation Army this morning stated that many local people were under the mistaken impression that the Gospel Herald workers who visit this city are associated with the Salvation Army and that what the secure goes toward the benefit of the work of the army. Such is not the case, the Gospel Herald workers having their headquarters in Youngstown and working out of that city. The money collected will benefit only the Youngstown district.

Keystone State Fourth In Exports

Report For Second Quarter Of 1927 Given By Government

By GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of the News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—Pennsylvania ranked fourth among the states in order of value of exports during the second quarter of 1927, according to department of commerce reports.

Foreign shipments of merchandise from the Keystone state during the three months' period had a value of $74,911,406. This is a decline of $288,985 from the corresponding period of 1925 and a decrease of $2,162,329 from the first quarter of the year.

New York, Texas and Michigan ranked first, second and third, respectively.

Anthracite coal valued at $8,705,027 and bituminous coal valued at $5,382,385, was first in order of value among the commodities sent from Pennsylvania into foreign markets during the second three months' period. Exports of iron and steel plates, sheets, skelp and strips were valued at $8,190,484 followed in order by lubricating oil, gasoline, tubular products and fittings, wheat, illuminating oil, electrical machinery, oil well machinery and leather.

Pennsylvania's industries are widely diversified and hundreds of commodities are shipped to foreign markets.

Young Woman's Ear Is Worth $10,000

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 15.—A young woman's ear is worth $10,000, it was decided in federal court here yesterday when a jury awarded damages of that amount to Audra Glass of Van Wert county, Ohio.

Attorneys for the Wabash Railroad Co., defendant in the suit, immediately filed a motion for a new trial, claiming that the award was excessive.

Miss Glass had sued for $50,000 following an accident at Fort Wayne, March 1, 1925, when the automobile in which she was riding was struck by a train.

Senorita Calles Of Mexico Has Praise For American Girls

Beautiful Daughter Of Mexican President Lauds American Girls For "It"

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl Thinks American Girls Are Lovely; Visits Capital

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—The modern American girl, for all her swagger, dash and daring, is the most wonderful institution in our gay republic, in the eyes of pretty Senorita Alicia Elias Calles, daughter of President Calles of Mexico, who is visiting the Capital for the first time.

Diminutive and demure, her shiny black bobbed hair parted sharply in the middle and dressed tightly over the ears, the sixteen year old senorita gives the impression of being at liberty today only because Flo Ziegfeld has never seen her.

"All America, I find irresistibly fascinating," said Senorita Calles. "You hurry so! But you have such a grand time of it all!

Finds Women Lovely.

"Your women, they are so lovely! They are absolutely fearless, are they not?"

"Absolutely," asserted the interviewer hurriedly.

"And they have so much energy; they are so—how do you call it—vivacious!"

"We call it "IT," the reporter ventured.

"However you call it, they are lovely," Senorita Calles persisted. "American women today are the leaders of the world. Women everywhere aspire to attain the same relative position in political affairs, in education in business and in civic enterprises."

Neshannock Narrows Closed To Traffic

Numerous Washouts Have Made It Necessary To Close It Up Temporarily

Neshannock Narrows, the route to the paper mill and the bathing beach, east of the city, have been closed to all traffic for an indefinite period, it was announced this morning by L. G. Genkinger, city councilman and head of the department of streets, this morning.

It has become necessary that the road be closed for the safety of motorists and others, who use this highway. There have been numerous washouts along the road as a result of the recent heavy rains and resulting washouts.

It will be necessary to install cribbing in order to effect a number of the fills made necessary by washouts of the roadway along the Neshannock creek. This will take some little time and it is not now known, when the road can again be opened to traffic.

Spends Half Century In Order; Member Of Mercer Lodge For 40 Years

MERCER, Pa., Dec. 15.—A jewel in recognition of 50 years' membership of the I. O. O. F. lodge will be presented to J. B. Morrow next Tuesday evening at the meeting of the local lodge.

Mr. Morrow joined the order half a century ago while a resident of Wheatland. He has been a member of the local order for over 40 years.

RELIEF FOR ASTHMA DISTRESS

Most Asthma sufferers have tried everything and have little faith in any remedy. The makers of Murrmann's Compound, a most effective formula for all diseases of the respiratory organs, recognizes this fact, but urge you nevertheless to try Murrmann's. Originally prepared for deep and persistent lung coughs, it has been found of distinct benefit to those suffering from asthma, time and again. One bottle will show you what it can do for you. Murrmann's is unique in that it contains no alcohol or narcotic drugs of any kind. It does not class as a common patent medicine, being an approved and recognized formula that has shown its healing and tissue building qualities. At reliable druggists. If yours hasn't it he can quickly get it from the D. W. Price Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Mercer Rebekahs Have District Meet

Confer Assembly Degree On Lodge Past Noble Grands; Entertained At Dinner

GROVE CITY, Pa., Dec. 15. — A large number of members of the Rebekah Lodge from this district attended the Mercer County District meeting held here in Grove City, on Tuesday afternoon and evening, in the I. O. O. F. Building. The afternoon program opened at 1:30 and included a school of instruction in Rebekah work, and a memorial service by the officers of the Grove City lodge. The guests of the day were entertained at a six o'clock dinner which was followed by the evening program.

Mrs. W. P. Simpson, of the local lodge, gave the address of welcome to the assembled guests and the response was made by Mrs. Elizabeth B. Sloan, of Philadelphia, secretary of the Assembly. The Assembly degree was conferred upon the past noble grands of the lodge.

Youths Confess Murder, Hold-ups

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—The confession of Lloyd Moore, 18, third member of a youthful bandit gang to admit responsibility for a long series of holdups and one murder, occupied the attention of police today while the fourth member, Joe Ferraro, was enroute here from Cleveland in custody of detectives.

The three confessed to "at least" twenty holdups and many more automobile thefts after Mike Ferraro, 16, conscience-stricken made a clean breast of his crime career to the judge who sentenced him to a detention school for a minor offense. Henry Costello is the other confessed bandit.

Mike Ferraro told about shooting and stabbing to death Edward Flinn, a watchman, in a recent holdup.

Please Take Notice!

Heavy Rains Flood Grove City Streets

Lower Floor Of Hotel Under Water; Floods Business House Basements

GROVE CITY, Pa., Dec. 15.—Grove City was flooded yesterday and today by the largest downfall of rain in the past 14 years. Not since 1913 was Wolf Creek swollen to such heights as late last evening and early this morning. City engineers were much disturbed over the possibility of the upper dam across Wolf Creek giving way before the rushing torrent of water which rose continually during the night to reach a height far above any other in the last few years, and flooding the whole lower floor of the Penn Grove Hotel and the basements of many of the business houses and residences along the creek.

For the last 24 hours the rain has been falling in a steady downpour which at times represented a veritable cloudburst. The city drainage system proved very inadequate for the amount of water to fall and caused water to remain on the streets in such quantity as to block traffic for hours. Many basements of business houses along Broad street were flooded by the water from the street and a considerable amount of damage was done to excess stock stored in the various basements.

They say Mr. Fall is broke and the situation is desperate this time, for he hasn't anything to peddle.

Business Boom At Credit Exchange

Number Of Calls Shows Great Increase During Past Week Or Two

Queries for credit to the local merchants range anywhere from $25 to $1,000 this Christmas season, says Ray F. Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange. Most of the queries, he goes on come from people who wish to purchase either jewelry or furniture.

"Never before have I seen the exchange so busy," says Mr. Hall. "Before, we only averaged about 30 calls a day, but since the Christmas rush has started, more than 100 querries a day from the merchants are cleared through the exchange. As yet, though, we have not employed an extra girl, and I think that the staff should be congratulated on the efficient way in which they are handling the increase in business."

Mr. Hall also urges merchants to be on the alert against bad check passers who are now working in New Castle. He further asks that when a merchant receives a bad check that he pass word along to other merchants so that they too can be prepared.

Mayor Reads Burial Service To Drunk

(International News Service)

LEWISTOWN, Pa., Dec. 15.—"Mans days are three score and ten," Mayor Charles W. Wertz quoted from the Bible when John Young, 60, was haled before him for drunkenness.

"Which means you should live ten years more" added the mayor, "but if yau persist in drinking—" and here his honor finished his object lesson by reading the Christian burial service.

Young promised never to touch another drop.

Subordinate Grange's Part Is Emphasized In Boak's Address

J. Audley Boak, master of the Pennsylvania state grange, in making his report to the state convention at Erie, laid much emphasis on the subordinate grange as the most important phase of the organization and urged all members and officers to endeavor to improve the service that their grange is rendering and increase the membership of their local grange.

Mr. Boak said that as "the nation cannot rise above the level of the home, neither can our order rise above the level of the subordinate grange, any more than the stream can rise above the spring which is its source."

"The grange should be a community center," said Mr. Boak, "one where the community should function, where the social activities of the community should be carried on, the fraternal spirit developed, where the community becomes one large family, where we are all brothers and sisters and learn to forget our differences. Where we forget our age and are neither young nor old, but mingle our joys together."

Mr. Boak said that if we expect to keep our young people in the country we must make life just as attractive on the farm as elsewhere. "The grange can best offset the theatre, the dance hall, etc., by furnishing something better, and when this is done we have won the young."

Thus the state master urged the formation of juvenile granges, saying that seven had been organized in the state the past year. He said they were to the order as Sunday schools are to the church.

Cooperation was said to be the means of success and urged the grangers to give a more liberal patronage to the Keystone Grange Exchange, the grange fire and life insurance activities and all interests of the grange.

Law enforcement was dwelt upon to some length in the welcoming speech of Mr. Boak. He appealed to his fellow patrons to defend the constitution of the United States against its enemies. He said that although the state legislature was not in session this year, now was the time to plan what the grange wished to be brought before the legislature next year.

On the subject of farm relief, Mr. Boak quoted the national grange action recently taken at their convention at Cleveland, which stood for the export debenture plan as the most effective and workable farm relief plan.

Among the other topics mentioned by the state master in his report were the grange memorial of a girls' dormitory at State College, rural electrification, taxes, peace, the ritual, the report of the national grange, roads, schools, primary election laws, pests control, transportation, marketing, fairs and exhibits, Sabbath observance and the cigarette evil.

BRIEF FREEDOM FOR BOY THIEF

Caught At Sharon After Escape From Crawford Jail

MEADVILLE, Dec. 15.—Apprehended at Sharon only six hours after he quietly walked out of the Crawford county jail Arthur Vanderhoof, 14-year-old Titusville boy sentenced by Judge Thomas J. Prather to an indefinite term in the Pennsylvania training school at Morganza was back in the local institution yesterday awaiting early transportation to the reformatory.

Vanderhoof was arrested on November 26 at Oil City following the robbery of seven Titusville stores. He confessed to all of these robberies as well as to several others.

For the past several weeks Sheriff Charles H. Jones has indicated his trust in the youngster by giving him odd jobs around the jail and allowing him almost complete liberty. On Monday Vanderhoof and another trusty were set to work to wash the dishes and it was while engaged in this task that he slipped from the building taking with him neither hat nor coat.

Rivers Going Down Mosely Declares

Believes That Menace Of Flood Has Passed Away

J. L. Mosely, who measures the depth of Shenango river, today stated the water is going down. The Neshannock river also is decreasing, according to reports.

However, city officials today had to close The Narrows between Rural avenue and Paper Mill dam where the water had washed away embankment creating a menace.

Mosely believes the flood menace is past, so far as the Shenango, considered a navigable stream, is concerned.

Stray Dogs Face The Electric Chair

BOSTON, Dec. 15. — Electrocution awaits any dog found wandering the streets of Boston after Mayor Malcolm E. Nichols signs an order, passed by the city council, that all dogs in the city be leashed or muzzled for 90 days.

The order was passed after recommendation of Dr. Francis X. Mahoney, city health commissioner.

The officials pointed out that more than 1,000 persons in the state have been bitten by dogs suspected of having rabies during the last six months.

Good Price Is Paid For Quilt

HERMOSA, S. D., Dec. 15.—A quilt on which Mrs. Calvin Coolidge pieced a block and embroidered her name has been sold at a bazaar of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church, where President and Mrs. Coolidge attended services during their Black Hills vacation last summer.

The quilt brought $25.

Mad Bull Attacks Peruvian Film Star

LIMA, Peru Dec. 15.—Luis Romero, Peruvian film star, came within an ace of losing his life today on the horns of a mad bull, which attacked him while he was demonstrating his horsemanship.

The bull knocked the actor from his mount and was attacking him on the ground when vaqueros from the ranch where Romero's company was on location came to the rescue.

Peru has lately been encouraging the development of a national movie industry and several films of historical and national interest have already been produced. Local producers are paying special attention to development of national stars, among them Romero.

Professor Scouts Baboon Theory

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—Dr. Adolph Schults, antropologist of Johns Hopkins University medical school, who has taken a baboon to raise and study scientifically, does not agree with the theory attributed to Dr. Lindemann of Oxford University, England, that 20 years of scientific breeding could produce a race of girl baboons who would do the dusting, sweeping and scrubbing and release their mistresses for bridge playing and tea dances.

It is impossible, said Dr. Schults, to tell when the traits handed down to her by a bad-natured grandfather baboon might turn up in the housemaid baboon; those traits might lead her to smash everything and turn the house upside down instead of dusting and cleaning it.

Again Appeal To Governor Fisher To Halt Evictions

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—For the third time Governor John S. Fisher today was asked to halt the sale of evicted miner's furniture, in a telegram dispatched by wives of former employes of the Union Collieries Co., here.

The furniture is scheduled to be placed on the auction block at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The women wired the governor that barracks have been completed sufficiently to accommodate half of their number, but they are unable to move their household goods because of a lien held by the company.

Mrs. Grayson Still Planning Flight Across Atlantic

(International News Service)

CURTISS FIELD, N. Y., Dec. 15.—Mrs. Frances W. Grayson's amphibian airplane, "Dawn," was being groomed today for a flight to Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, where Mrs. Grayson said she has been establishing a base from which to take off on a trans-Atlantic hop to Denmark.

Mrs. Grayson declined to set even a tentative date for the flight to Harbor Grace, because of the uncertainty of the weather. She intimated however, that the plane would not take off before tomorrow at the earliest.

Engine Tumbles Into An Old Pit

CORRY, Dec. 15.—Daniel Campbell of Meadville, had a narrow escape from serious injuries when the local Erie railroad yard engine took a dive into the pit formerly housing the turntable in the east end yards of the Erie system.

Campbell is employed by the railroad as an engine hostler and he was working about the big locomotive, emptying the hoppers and otherwise attending it, when the brakes unloosened through some unknown cause and the locomotive went off the track into the pit, a three or four foot drop.

The nose of the engine was buried in the dirt, while its cabin was tilted into the air, the tender remaining on the rails. Campbell was working in the cabin at the time. The hostler suffered severe bruises to his left side, slight injuries to his right leg and bruises to the left arm. He was removed to Corry hospital but was discharged after a few hours.

Sunday To Speak In Local Church

First M. E. Auditorium Will Be Used For Addresses In City

OVERFLOW MEETING IS ALSO ARRANGED

Billy Sunday will speak in the First M. E. church on Wednesday, December 21, afternoon and evening, E. J. Berquist, superintendent of the City Rescue Mission, announced today. Arrangements have been made for an overflow meeting in the evening which will be held in the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Sunday speaking there also. In this way it is believed that everyone who desires to hear Mr. Sunday will be enabled to.

At the meeting in the First Methodist church, which Dr. Weaver, and the church officials consented to be used, Dr. W. P. Felch will have charge of the ushering and will use every available foot of space for those who come. Mrs. Helen Urmson Felch will render a special solo at the evening meeting.

Though coming on Wednesday evening, the regular day for mid-week services in most churches, Mr. Berquist is asking all the ministers in the city to co-operate with him in the meeting insofar as possible. Arrangements are being made to have local ministers participate and those attending will be seated on the pulpit with the famous evangelist.

Further details of the programs will be announced later.

ARMY OF DETECTIVES WATCH PETTY THIEVES IN DEPARTMENT STORES

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—A special army of two hundred City Hall detectives has been designed to Philadelphia's largest stores to watch for shoplifters and pickpockets who annually take advantage of holiday crowds of shoppers to make their hauls.

WAMPUM

Rev. And Mrs. Bingham Tendered Surprise

Wampum Presbyterian Church Members Make Presentation At Gathering

WAMPUM, Pa., Dec. 15. — Wednesday evening following the regular mid-week prayer meeting services at the Wampum Presbyterian church, a considerable number of the members of the congregation under the auspices of the Ladies Missionary Society, tendered Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Bingham, pastor of the church, and his wife, a surprise, during which they were presented with a fine quilt which the Ladies Missionary Society had been working on for some time and which it was planned to give the pastor and his wife for Christmas. Owing to the fact that most people are very busy during Christmas week, the affair was planned for last night and for the membership of the church and it proved a success.

It was a complete surprise to the recipients of the gift and honor guests of the occasion. Following the service, all those present remained and participated. The patches of the quilt contained the names of the persons who had assisted in the making of the quilt.

The presentation was made by Mrs. R. R. McGeorge, while E. C. Hulbert, superintendent of the Sunday School, spoke in behalf of the congregation in appreciation of the work done by Rev. and Mrs. Bingham. Rev. Bingham responded stating that while the affair was a complete surprise, that during the services, he had been reminded of the fact that it was approximately five years since he had been installed as pastor of the church, by the smell of coffee from the kitchen. He had a similar warning at the time of his installation of the happenings to follow the installation.

A nice lunch was served following the presentation and remarks by the social committee of the Ladies Missionary Society, consisting of Miss Beulah Wilson, chairlady, Mrs. W. A. Brown, Mrs. T. J. McCullough, Mrs. R. R. McGeorge, Mrs. Clarence Staph, Mrs. C. F. Morrow and Mrs. S. Hennon.

Wm. McCullough left Monday for Erie where he will attend meeting of Grange and will conduct the music while there.

Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Luce and Glen Davis have returned from Ellington, N. Y., where they visited the former's parents.

Ladies Aid of the Clinton M. E. church were quite successful Tuesday night at their roast beef dinner, they served from 200 to 300 persons with a very good dinner and those attending enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Belle Pariso who has been the guest of Mrs. W. A. Brown, Kay street has gone to New Castle where she will visit relatives before returning to McKeesport.

Lawrence Wilson who has been ill is improved and able to be out again.

Mrs. M. J. McGrath and daughter Mary are visiting relatives in Coraopolis.

Mrs. Pete Robertson continues quite ill, not improved.

M. R. Roberts of Pittsburgh was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

Still Pumping Water Out Of Some Basements

Damage Reported To Numerous Streets Of City Being Repaired

That the road through the Neshannock Narrows had been washed out in at least two places, that the road had been baricaded, and that some one, ostentatiously on a "petting party" had broken through the barricade, stolen two red lanterns and threw the signs over the embankment were the statements made this morning by Street Commissioner Harry Moore in discussing the damage done by the recent heavy rains and the flooded Neshannock creek.

Along Croton avenue the bank is sliding into the creek, the street commissioner reports. Other damage that the waters did to the city streets has been repaired.

This morning along Washington street, Mill street and Mercer street where the water was highest, merchants are still pumping water out of basements. In all 10 or 12 pumps must be at work now in the down town section Mr. Moore avers.

Zoning Board To Stop Work On New Structure

In a decision handed down Wednesday, the board of zoning appeals handed down its decision in the matter of the permit asked to construct a building at 503 Sheridan avenue, by the New Castle Lumber and Construction company for L. W. Platt and John Baer. The property as now being erected is eight feet in front of the balance of the properties of the square in which it is located. A permit was refused by the city engineer on the ground that this was a violation of the zoning regulations of the city. The board sustained the engineer in refusing the permit.

In view of the fact that the construction of the building was continued after the board of zoning appeals had notified the contractor to stop work pending the decision and is still going on, the city is now preparing to take action in court against the owners, to compel the construction of the building in accordance with the regulations of the zoning ordinance.

It means that if the city is sustained by the court that a considerable part of the structure will have to be removed or destroyed, entailing a considerable loss to the owners. The information is to be made in a few days.

Ask Return Of Christmas Seals

Society To Make Check-up On Money Received From Stamps —Are Still On Sale

A plea to those people who have received tuberculosis Christmas seals and have returned neither the seals nor the money at least to return the seals was made this morning by Miss Della Glenn of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society, who is in charge of the Christmas seal sale this year.

Miss Glenn states that she wants the seals returned so that a final checkup of the money can be made and results made public. Sales are running about the same as last year, she says.

Booths have been placed in the New Castle Dry Goods store and at the Dollar Savings bank and belated shoppers can get their seals at these places, Miss Glenn declares.

Jailed For Failure To Pay City Taxes

Fred Heard of 929 Moravia street, was committed to the county jail this morning by P. G. Greer of the city treasurer's department for refusal to pay his city taxes amounting to $6.29. Mr. Greer says that he has a list of others who will be committed to jail if they fail to pay their taxes.

Saved for You on All Christmas Gifts by the United policy

The principle of sharing our profits with our customers by means of "United" Certificates distinguishes United Chemists from all other drug stores. Day in and day out, we save you 6% (7½% in the cigar department).

Each certificate has a redemption value in standard merchandise, of 1½ cents. We give, daily—

4 certificates with each $1 purchase, drug dep't.
5 certificates with each $1 purchase, cigar dep't.

This means that on every dollar you spend you save 6c on all our hundreds of articles, and on cigars, cigarettes, tobacco and smokers' articles you save 7½c on the dollar every day.

On Saturdays, we give extra certificates—an extra saving for you. Come in Saturday. See our premium display. Ask for the premium catalog. Then take advantage of this big saving on your Christmas gifts.

Christmas in Cherryland.

Wednesday evening Grades 4A, 5A and 6A will present "Christmas in Cherryland" a Japanese operetta.

This operetta takes place in a Japanese Tea Garden. It portrays the character and customs of the Japanese as seen by two American college girls and their Antiquarian Professor. "Christmas in Cherryland' is given in two scenes and besides the main characters includes many choruses of girls dressed in Japanese costumes. There are various types of characters shown in this operetta but the character of Yum Yum, the Battercake Man, affords abundant opportunity for comedy.

Characters.

Anna—Stella Davidson.

Chapel.

Chapel program was put on by the members of the shorthand classes last Thursday. Miss Keys had charge of the program. The entertainment consisted of short plays and songs. The first of the plays showed several office pictures of girls applying for jobs. The second play, entitled "Shot at Sunrise" cleverly taught a lesson in the use of the English language.

Be-Hi Record.

On Tuesday, December 20 the third issue of the Be-Hi Record, the Bessemer school monthly paper will be on sale .

The December issue is the Christmas number and will be the best put out so far this season. It contains news items, stories, editorials, jokes and personals all of which would be of some interest to any one who might read them.

The Journalism class states that the Christmas issue will be the last paper published this year so make the best of your opportunities and see the business managers or the newsboys some time Tuesday. The paper will also be on sale in the hall before the Tuesday evening operetta.

Alumni anxious to get back to home town.

Once again Father Time has brought us around to the season of Christmas.

This means a chance to come back to the "good old home town' for the 17 Bessemer High Alumni who are going to college.

The two weeks previous to Christmas vacation are quite strenuous to all college students for in most places the dreaded exams are being given before vacation.

GUILD MEETING.

The Westminster Guild Girls held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Elizabeth Macklin. After the devotionals the meeting was turned over to the president. There were three new members taken in and also two visitors.

Mrs. Throop leader of the girls, read a letter received from their old friend, Edna Tait in Alaska. The girls decided to send Christmas greetings to her.

The next meeting will be held at the O'Neil home on January 9, 1928.

CHANGE IN CHURCH SCHEDULE.

Services at the Bessemer Presbyterian church will begin at 7:30 instead of 8 beginning next Sunday evening December 18.

JUNIOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The Junior Christian Endeavor society had an interesting meeting Sunday evening. The topic was "Fair Play for Foreigners." Ruth Eaton was leader.

The Juniors seem to show a great interest in these meetings which are held every Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church. The attendance on December 4 was 57 and on December 11, 37.

Any one under 14 years may attend these meetings and become a member by signing an Active Member of Preparatory Member pledge card.

The next meeting will be Sunday evening at 6:30 p. m. The topic is "Willing to Forgive."

SENIOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The Senior Christian Endeavor held their regular meeting on Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. Margaret Carlson was leader. Plans were made for the society to give Christmas gifts to the needy families of Bessemer. A committee was appointed by the vice president, Wesley Drake. Next Sunday evening the meeting will begin at 6:30 p. m.

LADIES LOYAL BIBLE CLASS.

The Ladies Loyal Bible class will meet at the home of Mrs. Montgomery on Friday night instead of Thursday. All members are urged to be present.

ENJOYED IT.

"Some one told me you entertained your neighbors informally last night."

"Yes, I had a quarrel with my husband on the front porch."

Best Way to Loosen Stubborn Cough

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, throat tickle, bronchial asthma, or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Hope you were at The King's Henchman last night in the Cathedral. It was something that was well worth seeing and hearing and in addition it was in English. With more of this sort of thing being produced those folks who stayed away from opera because they couldn't understand the language will have no reason for missing them.

And really there never was any good reason why an opera couldn't be produced in English. Certainly any opera is not given any particular merit just because of the language in which the book is written.

Now that Deems Taylor has written an opera around the life in England in the tenth century, why not have one dealing with the early American life. If Mimi, a consumptive little French girl was material enough for the opera La Boheme, surely such sterling American women as Molly Pitcher, Elizabeth Zane or Priscilla, the lady sought by Miles Standish should be good for an opera.

Or an opera based on Evangeline, or Pocohantas, or any one of a score of love affairs in our early history. Read the books of any of the foreign operas and you find nothing better.

Deems Taylor is to be congratulated for The King's Henchman. Opera certainly did not die with Schubert, Wagner, Verdi or Rossini and perhaps in the future we may have something big in this field done by a chap named Smith or Jones.

Still doing a heavy job of sitting in court listening to the sad story of the killing. Somebody should bring a violinist in and have some low sweet music as an accompaniment. Say Hearts and Flowers or Traumerei.

And as usual, the courtroom is jammed with spectators.

The mail man is beginning to get his usual Christmas peak loads. From now on until the first of the year your mail man will have enough to do without stopping to exchange stories as he drops your letter in the box.

For a permanent head which can be set up in any newspaper office, why not this, "Lindy Lands Successfully." The boy knows his oil. Without any fuss or furore he just steps into the cockpit, gives 'er the gun and zooms away into the clouds.

RETURN FROM HUNTING TRIP

Bill West and Russell Gormley of Harlansburg road have returned from near Huntingdon, where they spent a week deer hunting. West shot a deer and Gormley killed one which another member of the party had wounded, which entitled him to one half of the meat and the other hunter got the head and one half of the meat.

Allegheny River Slowly Receding At Pittsburgh

Change In Weather Causes Allegheny River To Drop Two Feet Over Night

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15. — The Allegheny river gradually receded today from the 30.3 stage reached at midnight and stood at 28.2 at 8 o'clock this morning. Thousands of dollars damage was done to merchandise in basements of downtown stores through seepage.

When the river was at its crest of more than five feet above flood stage, hundreds of families in the lower Northside district of Pittsburgh were compelled to take refuge in the second story of their homes.

The weather bureau here predicted the river would continue to fall throughout the day, despite predictions of rainfall late today or tomorrow. W. S. Brotzman, forecaster, stated the rainfall would not materially affect the river stage.

Armed Militamen Guard House Of Representatives In Oklahoma City

(International News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 15.—The Oklahoma senate was in search of a presiding officer for its court of impeachment today.

Meanwhile armed militiamen, called out to prevent assemblage of the legislature on Monday, stood guard over the house of representatives chamber to keep any member of the house from entering.

The supreme court was to hold a conference at 9 o'clock to determine whether any of its justices would consent to preside over the trial of Governor Henry S. Johnston. An hour later the senate was to meet and select one of its own members to preside should the judges all decline.

By an almost unanimous vote, the senate decided late yesterday not to suspend the governor at this stage of the proceedings. This postponed the conflict that loomed if the senate had attempted to elevate Lieutenant Governor William J. Holloway to the acting governorship in the face of Johnston's assertion that he would not submit to being dispossessed even temporarily.

A truce until after the holidays was in sight with the possibility that the legality of the legislature's self-convened session might be on its way to the United States Supreme Court before an actual attempt was made to bring the governor to trial.

Chief Justice Fred P. Branson of the supreme court, who himself is under impeachment charges, came to the senate chamber promptly yesterday afternoon when the senate notified him it was ready to perfect its organization for the governor's trial.

Small [illegible] Loss At [illegible]ystone Store

Firemen Answer Two Alarms In Past Twenty-Four Hours; No Serious Damage

An alarm from box 28 at 10:35 p. m. Wednesday called the firemen to the Keystone Grocery company store, 30 North Mill street, where a fire had been discovered in the window among some candies, baby dolls and Christmas decorations. The fire loss was about $25, some dolls and candy being destroyed. The fire was caused when some tissue paper wrapped around a high watt electric bulb ignited from the heat of the bulb.

An alarm of fire received shortly after eleven o'clock this morning called the firemen to 43 Shadyside. The call was received over the telephone from a foreigner, who stated there was a fire at that place. When the firemen arrived, they found no fire and could locate no person who had turned in the alarm. The alarm was sounded from box 43.

State Highways Little Damaged By Heavy Rains

State highways in this district were damaged very little by the heavy rains and flood of Tuesday afternoon and night according to J. H. Robinson, district engineer of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

Mr. Robinson said that the berms boarding the pavements of several of the state highways were considerably washed but the pavement had not been damaged in any place as far as he could yet learn.

On Tuesday evening and through Wednesday high water was over the state highways in several places in some places so deep that autos were unable to get through but this morning the water has fallen so that all roads are reported passable.

Fortunately no bridges on state routes were taken out although many of the culverts on township roads were either taken out or stopped up and the roadways badly washed. It is likely that thousands of dollars of damage was done to ash and gravel roads.

Big Game Season At An End Today

The lawful season in which deer and bear, the big game of the state may be hunted in Pennsylvania came to an official end today and those hunters of this district and the state who were not fortunate enough to get a bear or a deer will be compelled to content themselves with the thought that there will be another big game season next year.

FACES TRIAL ON ARSON CHARGE

Miss Velma Copas, 21-year-old girl of Sedalia, Mo., together with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Copas, will be tried in January on a charge of second degree arson. It is alleged Miss Copas persuaded her sweetheart to set fire to her parents' home in order that they might collect insurance. The sweetheart was badly burned and his brother was killed in the fire that destroyed the home.

Statement of Secretary of the Mission Board

The Friends and Supporters of the City Mission will be glad to know that the City Mission has again taken another step forward. At a recent Board Meeting which was held on Tuesday, November the 29th, 1927, according to the Minutes of the Secretary E. J. Berquist. The City Mission has secured a Certified Accountant who is at the present time going over the books of the City Mission not only for the past year's work, but will for every year to come. The City Mission will publish a statement in order that it may be a little clearer to its supporters and friends along with its activities, a financial statement of the amount of the money received from subscription or any other source, and also its disbursements and how their money is spent. This will be give to every contributer and to any one else who may wish it and also a report will be sent to some of the leading officials of our Country.

Mr. Berquist states that while an account has always been kept, but in order that any one who contributes to the Mission may know how their money is being spent the Board has taken this action for the protection of the City Mission. The City Mission has all its records of the disbursements and activities since the first day of December 1911 since its beginning of its first day's work up until the present day.

Signed, E. J. BERQUIST,
Secretary of the Mission Board.

Christmas Spirit Invades Elevators

Business Men And Office Girls Remember Boys Who Haul Them To Work

This is the season that elevator boys are a trifle more brisk than usual for in the air they can smell the approach of Christmas, the time of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men, when everyone remembers everyone else and does not forget the youngster who hauls them up and down.

Usually the elevator boys say the business men in their buildings do not forget them. They club together each one chipping in two or three dollars and give the aggregate to the boys. And in the larger buildings this is no mean present.

The office girls too: They do not forget to remember. The present here boys say ranges from a "hankie" to a necktie or a pair of socks. It is the spirit however that these gifts are given that pleases the boys most. And then who wouldn't like to get a necktie from a pretty girl?

Greek Bride Claims $100,000 Income Not Forthcoming

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG Dec. 15.—Fifty-two times $20 doesn't total $100,000—and therein lies the case of Mrs. Eoula Xanthos Davis suit for divorce from Charles Davis.

Mrs. Davis told a local court that Charles wooed her in Sparta, Greece and won her hand by telling her his annual income was $100,000 in Harrisburg. With visions of motor cars and a country home to lure her she married him she says.

She came with him to Harrisburg, where she says Charlie has the lunch concession in a local department store where his net income is $20 a week.

Countess Karolyi's Paris Curio Shop

(International News Service)

PARIS, Dec. 15.—The wife of the former president of the Hungarian republic, Countess Michel Karolyi, has just opened the doors of her little curiosity shop in the fashionable avenue de Malakoff.

"My new profession," says this vivacious little countess, "means a perpetual pastime for my mind and will keep it from thinking other things.

"Today work is my only pleasure. I hope soon to organize a little salon de the, furnished with beautiful old things, to which a few writers will come, and thus, wit will mix with business."

Countess Karolyi has been in exile with her husband since 1919, living in several cities of Europe and America before settling in a modest pension in Paris. From her father, who was a skilled collector of artiques, she inherited a liking for old and beautiful things, and feels certain she will make a success in the French capital.

She began collecting old English furniture, but intends to search for French ones de style and will go into the French provinces on the look for rare pieces. The little shop will also include rare books and old engravings. In the rooms below she hopes to arrange an art room where conferences may be given.

Homely Face Not Cause For Divorce

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARE, Pa., Dec. 15.—An unattractive face is insufficient grounds for separation Judge John Fine ruled here in bringing about a reconcilliation between a Plymouth, Pa., couple.

The wife beautifully gowned and highly attractive appealed to the judge to order her husband from her home "because he is homely." The husband pictured a domestic triangle in his counter charge. The judge listened to an airing of their difficulties then patched matters up and sent the couple home.

The trouble seems to be that those who prefer bad government don't limit their interest to one week every four years.

Knights Of Columbus Meet Wednesday Night

Matters Of Interest To Members Are Considered At This Time

St. Mary's Council, Knights of Columbus, held an interesting meeting Wednesday evening at which Stephen N. Griffith, lecturer, presided and announced plans for the future.

Among the plans announced was that for a social session to be held a little later at which time there will be an address on the 1928 motor code by Bernard N. Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor Club.

Plans were also announced for K. of C. Bowling League, which is to get underway in the near future with several teams.

It was also announced that a party and dance would be held during the holiday season.

The evening was concluded with an appropriate address by the chaplain of the council, the Rev. Fr. J. Dudley Nee.

Ask For Change In Zoning Rule

The zoning commission of the city is now investigating the request of residents and property owners in the C resident district, bounded on the north by Court street, on the south by the first alley south of Court street, on the east by the first alley east of Milton street and on the west by the first alley west of Milton street to change that district to a secondary business district. There has already been one protest filed against the proposed change in classification, it being that of the Second United Presbyterian church. As there is considerable territory in that vicinity in a business district and not in use, it is probable there will be other protests lodge with the commission.

For Her Merriest Christmas—

The World's Champion Car!

NO jewel case ever held more joy at Christmastide than the Keys to Happiness will bring her. Give them to her Christmas morning—watch her ecstasy when, out the window, she sees her own Studebaker Commander, world's champion car, standing at the door!

You've given her a car that has written new motor car history—the car that holds every endurance and speed record for stock cars regardless of power or price. For it was this car that traveled the amazing distance of 25,000 miles in the astounding time of less than 23,000 minutes under American Automobile Association supervision! Nothing else on earth ever traveled so far so fast.

In these records is proof positive of advanced design, precision manufacture and quality materials. The durability which was demonstrated by 25,000 miles in less than 23,000 minutes insures years of satisfying service to her. It means long life, low maintenance cost, superlative performance.

She will adore driving The Commander, for it handles so easily, and slips along so smoothly. And she'll love its smartness, its authoritative motor-car modishness, its dainty appointments, its roominess and rich, comfortable upholstering.

Call today for the Keys — Christmas Eve, Christmas morning or when you like, her Commander will be at your door. Then, be prepared for compliments on your thoughtfulness!

NEW LOW PRICES

The Dictator	$1165 to $1345

THE NEWS BY MAIL, ONE YEAR, $5.00

"The King's Henchman" Most Pleasing Program

For so many years that it seems hardly worth while to count them up, we have been told that opera came only in foreign packages, none genuine without the original brogue. No good reason was ever advanced why this was so, it just was, and arguing the question was futile. If it wasn't in German, French or Italian, it wasn't opera, so there.

Along with a lot of other Americans, Deems Taylor and Edna St. Vincent Millay must have held the idea that an opera could be produced in the English language and forthwith they set about doing it. The result is The King's Henchman, presented in the Scottish Rite Cathedral on Wednesday evening.

An Intelligent Piece of Work

First of all Deems Taylor has written an intelligent piece of musical work in The King's Henchmen. Not a great work perhaps, but one that stands a favorable comparison with the operas of the other nations since the war. One that can be presented to the other nations as one of the first intelligent operas written in English.

One finds a trace of the German here and there, particularly in the first act. The second act is nearly all dialogue between the Henchman and Aelfrida with many recitatives resulting. The third act has more melodious passages, more especially in the latter part.

For the theme, Edna St. Vincent Millay has taken a Tenth Century love triangle and treated it most pleasingly. King Eadgar of Wessex, England, hears of a beautiful maiden in Devon, by name. Aelfrida and decides to send his henchman, Aethelwold down to woo the lady for him and bring her back. The Henchman gets lost in the Devonshire woods and meets a creature with whom he falls in love. He discovers it is Aelfrida and wanting her himself decides to send word back to the king that she is ugly.

His married life is not as satisfactory and they decide to go to Flanders when the King and his retinue is announced. Confronted with his perfidy, Aethelwold kills himself.

Staging Well Done

The staging of the opera is gorgeously done and the lighting effects in the second act compelled admiration. The cast presenting The King's Henchman was well chosen and for the two leads, Aethelwold and Aelfrida the director selected two singers who are not unknown here, Rafaelo Diaz and Marie Sundelius. Some years ago they appeared in the Westminster College concert courses.

The part of the king was taken by Henri Scott, with Dudley Marwick in the role of Ordgar, Thane of Devon and Alfredo Valenti as Maccus, master of horse to Aethelwold. Constance Hejda took the role of Ase serving woman to Aelfrida, Albert Crion the Archbishop of Canterbury, Bror Jeurling the part of Thored, master of the household to Ordgar and Orkelund Werner as Hwita cup bearer to King Eadgar. M. Zlatin directed.

To repeat, The King's Henchman is an intelligent piece of work, one that is well worth seeing, and best of all that is undoubtedly the forerunner of some English opera that will take its place with the best works of the foreign composers.

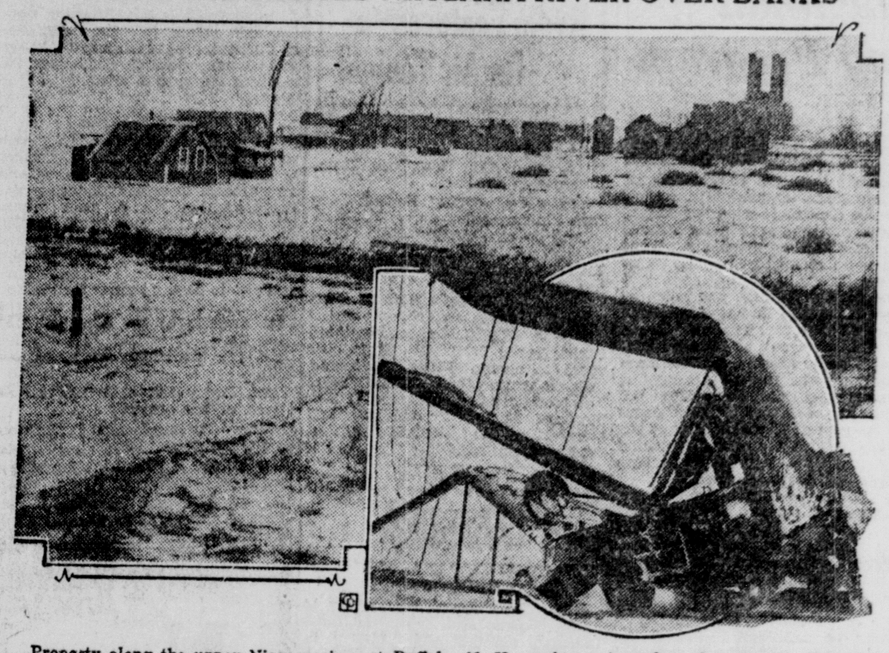
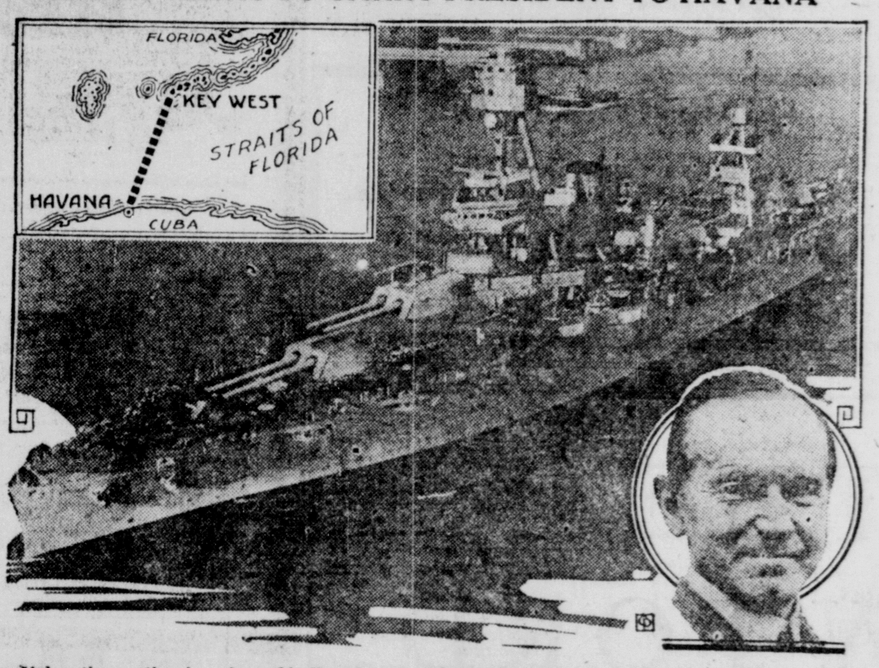
BLIZZARD FORCES NIAGARA RIVER OVER BANKS



Property along the upper Niagara river at Buffalo, N. Y., under water when the stream, whipped by an 80-mile wind, overflowed its banks, causing heavy damage. Inset, a view of a $30,000 Curtiss army bomber, at Buffalo, wrecked by the blizzard. Air field employes were unable to get the machine into a hangar because of its immense size.

ASSIGN TEXAS TO CARRY PRESIDENT TO HAVANA



Unless the weather is unfavorable President Coolidge will sail from Key West, Fla., to Havana, Cuba, to attend the Pan-American Congress in January, on the battleship Texas, above. The Texas cannot enter Key West harbor, therefore if the weather is bad a cruiser drawing less water will be used, so that the presidential party will not have to transfer from a launch. Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur and Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg, probably will accompany the president.

SAYS AIRSHIP PROPER CRAFT FOR LONG DISTANCE

Airships probably will be the real transoceanic aircraft of the future, according to Rear Admiral William A. Moffett of the U. S. navy. He says airplane lines probably will be used to feed short-haul traffic into airship terminals. "A passenger on a commercial airship similar in type to the new navy airship, could be promised an ocean voyage far more comfortable than in any other type of aircraft," Admiral Moffet declares. Photos show a navy airship, and Admiral Moffet, who is chief of the bureau of aeronautics.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Prerss Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—This Christmas spirit is a strange and wondrous affair. Tens of thousands elbow their brothers in the market places, buying everything from tinsel to tiaras . . . Clerks stand on swollen, weary feet from one harried day's end to the other. . . . Little children are dragged, flustered and excited, to see the four-hundred-and-eleventh edition of Kriss Kringle . . . The little woman buys friend husband a velvet house coat he'll never wear, and charges it on the dread January account . . . The blue fir trees thoughtfully placed by landscape gardeners all over Westchester county front lawns bloom out startlingly with red and gold electric bulbs, "living Christmas trees" to gladden the heart of the save-a-tree guild . . . The ten-cent store clerks snarl at you over the tissue paper counter and pray for a better job before another year rolls round again. . . .

They tell a wry one about John D. Rockefeller and a check he wrote in payment for dinner at a New York hotel. The waiter, following routine orders, took John D.'s check to the cashier for o. k., seeing that his multi-millionaire customer wasn't a guest of the hotel. The cashier had been bawled out before for cashing checks for transients, and he hemmed and hawed about it. Then he said that if George, the dining room captain, would write his o. k. on the back of the check, he'd let it go through. George did. And he is still proud of the fact that his signature saved the famous dime dispenser from embarrassment. It is a well-known trick of the fabulously rich not to carry any cash on the person. I know several millionaires who seldom have taxi fare. Maybe that's how they got where they are today.

I'm glad to see the girls are wearing snappier goloshes this year. The collegiate femmes in raccoon coats managed to ride about the handicaps of the old-fashioned, black buckled variety of overshoe, but when such a foot covering was worn along with a good-looking outfit on Fifth avenue, it certainly struck a jarring note. Now the close-fitting beige and gray overshoes catch the eye pleasantly, and the lady commuters, I fancy, are happier.

* * *

They have small boys in the most dapper uniforms to take charge of the lesser luggage at the Mayfair, in Park avenue. These diminutive "buttons" look not a day over 12 years old, and their presence there seems to me to be more in the nature of atmosphere than anything else, since other attendants, full-grown, carry up the big bags.

Ended Life As Did His Parents

JAMESTOWN, Dec. 15.—The body of Norman E. Blatt, 19, who committed suicide in some woods on the Kennedy-Frewburg road several weeks ago, which was found by a hunter, was shipped to his home in Robesonia, near Reading, Pa., for funeral and interment. A sister, Mrs. James Shaver, survives Blatt, who had worked on the new sewage disposal plant east of the city, up to October 25, when he disappeared. A few days later his automobile was found abandoned near the spot where he took his own life by hanging.

Fellow workmen told the authorities that Blatt had confided his intention of taking his own life, as his father and mother had done.

Watching Him Hang Is Rubbing It In

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 15.—Protest against allowing two women to attend his hanging Friday was made today by Jim Hayes, under death sentence for murder.

"Women got me into a peck of trouble, and if I must hang for the murder of a woman. I don't want any more of them around to gloat over the spectacle," Hayes said.

But Sheriff James Kent said Mrs. Dorothy Tedell, a policewoman, and Miss Nina Bowers, a nurse, would be allowed to witness the execution.

"I Gladly Recommend It to Anyone!"

Fascinating Josephine Dunn, Paramount Junior Star, is one of many beautiful women who have learned by experience the value of Black and White Face Powder.

"For a long time," says Miss Dunn, "I had been using various theatrical face powders, and I noticed the pores of my skin were becoming enlarged. Then I began using Black and White Face Powder and in a short time my complexion was greatly improved and my skin is now smooth and soft. I gladly recommend it to anyone!"

This flower-fragrant, silk-bolted powder clings caressingly for hours and lends to your skin its own exquisite texture and charm.

Black and White Beauty Creations are of a quality acceptable to those who seek the best, at prices within the reach of all—25c and 50c.

Find Women Half As Strong As Men

LONDON, Dec. 15. — The average woman has been found to have only a little more than half of the physical strength of the average man by investigators. The conclusion was reached in an official report of the Industrial Fatigue Research Board based on tests of 4,336 British women.

An exception was found, however, at Glasgow. A group of 40 girls employed in a factory there far exceeded the average man in strength. They work 10 hours daily shovelling borate. One of them handles more than 20 tons a day. They work in their bare feet with perfect ease. The girls were found to be in fine health.

Four hundred and sixty college girls chosen for the tests of sedentary workers proved to be taller, heavier and stronger than most industrial workers. The report attributed this to their being reared in the country and engaging in sport. Nevertheless, some of those bred in the towns made a good showing, one of the finest groups examined being born and bred in the worst slum in Glasgow.

Radio Aerial Kills Family

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 15—A homemade aerial for a radio set electrocuted a family of three here.

Fred Voltz and his son Joseph were erecting the aerial on a roof when it established contact with a high tension wire, electrocuting them. Mrs. Voltz attempted to pull her son's body from the wire and met a similar fate.

WRONG TO JOKE ABOUT YOUR HEALTH!

Don't let friends "kid" you when they say, "You're looking fine". Because you know how often you feel weak, nervous, headachy, stomach not so good, and other spells. Some of these slight attacks may be symptoms of System Poisoning—professionally called TOXEMIA. Ordinary laxative pills and waters do not eliminate the poisonous wastes that bring on TOXEMIA. Far better to get a box of PARTOLA, the internal antiseptic and laxative. Take two of these mint-flavored wafers at night, clean out the poisons, then your friends can truly say "you're looking fine". All good druggists sell regular box of PARTOLA 30¢, double size 60¢.

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Washington got busy with a rush this year—rather too much so. It was hard to keep up with.

First, congress met; then we had the president's message—nothing unexpected about either item, but both important.

Next—pop, pop, pop!—in rapid fire order—

President repeats—he doesn't choose to run—this time in italics. Charles Evans Hughes repeats—neither does he—and HE seems to mean it. Other Republican presidential candidacies immediately begin to boil to beat blazes. K. C. gets G. O. P. convention—it had to go somewhere but not necessarily to Kansas City. Senate locks Smith and Vare out on the doorsteps.

All this in the first three days after starting! The human understanding reels under such a successsion of events, strung together so fast.

With Coolidge and Hughes out of it, all the Washington dope is that Hoover's the leading possibility for the head of the 1928 Republican ticket—but not nearly as far ahead of the other possibilities as Al Smith is ahead of his'n.

Some of the dopesters say if it isn't Hoover, it will be Dawes and some say it will be Lowden.

Outside those three, they hardly allow anybody a look-in.

Personally I have my doubts about Washington dope's reliability. The dopesters sit here and dope and dope, without taking their minds off it, until they get muddled.

One thing the alleged experts say does sound reasonable—

That Hughes was the only eastern man except Coolidge—on the Republican side, of course—who was entitled to serious consideration any of the time, so with that pair shelved, it's a foregone conclusion that the G. O. P. nominee will be a westerner.

How FAR west is different.

The progressives harp on Borah or Norris. Myself, I can't imagine either on anything short of a third party ticket—unless Borah, in second place, perhaps.

Curtis I'd have thought might have made a possible compromise, but he doesn't appear to be rolling up a following.

Frank Willis certainly stands no show, on anything but the chance that the Republicans nominate Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, forcing the drys to run Frank independently. It would be an interesting prohibition referendum, at that. However, conservative bookmakers are offering a billion to one that it won't happen.

Does anybody recall that Nicholas Longworth was mentioned, at an early stage of the game? Not unless he has a good memory for small details.

Still, some of these forlorn-looking candidacies may pick up, now that the cards are ungummed by the definiteness of the latest Coolidge and Hughes statements.

Those two statements loosened things up, not twice, but half a dozen times more thoroughly than it could have been done by either one of them separately.

It's too soon to say that they've left only three surviving possibilities.

The Democratic situation's the result of a gradual process of attrition The Republican situation has just undergone the most recent of a series of brisk shake-ups. Attrition finishes its job quite completely. A shake-up has to have time to settle.

A New York artist says Lenora Corona, opera singer is the most paintable woman he ever saw. Gosh they all seem very paintable to us!

NEW GALILEE

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Welsh spent Saturday in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Kenneth Martsolf and daughter Virginia Mae of Canton, Ohio is spending the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Welsh.

Miss Marion Shawl has returned from a visit with relatives in Butler.

Harvey Leslie who has been confined to the Beaver Valley General hospital for some time past was brought to his home here in Lutton's ambulance, Saturday.

The many friends of Mrs. S. W. Pyle will be glad to learn that she is improving nicely after undergoing an operation in the Beaver Valley General hospital at New Brighton.

The residents of New Galilee were aroused early Monday morning about three o'clock when fire broke out in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nicely. The fire was extinguished without much damage.

Mrs. Phillis Hupp has returned to her home in Homewood after a week's stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Gray.

Mr. Allen Noggle and son Dale of Wampum, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knox Gilkey.

Mrs. J. R. Jenkins and daughters Martha and Kathryn were Pittsburgh visitors Saturday.

Dr. Fred Crawford of Toledo, Ohio, spent the week-end at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. R. Jenkins.

Mrs. R. R. McGeorge of near Wampum, was a New Galilee caller Tuesday.

Frank Jenkins was a business visitor in Mahoningtown, Monday.

Kathryn Jenkins visited with relatives in Negly, Ohio, Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Brown and son Lynn of College Hill, Beaver Falls, were New Galilee visitors Tuesday.

Harassed Hub—I wish I lived where the styles in dress never change.

Snappy Spouse—Humph! There's the penitentiary if that's all you want.

Dull, listless, out of sorts, feeling half-sick

IS it a cold coming on? Is it over-eating or what can it be? Probably it is Nature warning that your system is not functioning properly.

When you feel this way you should follow the treatment that has helped many, many other people. Even two weeks of it will make a difference in the way you feel.

A prominent New York physician says, "When my patients have that dull half-sick feeling I always prescribe Nujol and recommend at least two weeks' continued usage. Why? Because Nujol absorbs and clears away the toxic intestinal poisons that in most cases are the cause of the trouble. Further, Nujol is absolutely harmless and can be taken by young babies or old people."

Not like medicine

Nujol contains no drugs or medicine. It's a natural substance unlike anything else. Can't hurt you. Others have benefited from taking it, why not you?

This remarkable product is sold all over the world. Go to any druggist, get a bottle of Nujol and see for yourself what it will do. Only—don't delay. Do it now. Insist on the real Nujol. Perfected by the famous Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle.

Boy's Innocent Boast Brings Murder Charge Against Young Mother

By J. C. JOHNSEN
Staff Writer for Central Press and New Castle News

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 15.—"My daddy can do this—my daddy can do that—my daddy can do everything—"

Billy Withey, who is just 7, listened to his schoolmates tell of the superbness of their fathers until he could stand it no longer.

His father, William J. Withey, died October 23, after a day's illness, a sad blow to Billy.

So as his schoolmates told him of their daddy's prowess at this, that or the other, Billy spoke up, almost defensively:

"I should worry. I'm going to get a new daddy."

Parents Informed

Billy's playmates told their parents.

The parents told the police.

And as a result, Mrs. Myrtle Withey, 25 years old, widow of the dead man, is held in the county jail here on first degree murder charges.

Detectives say they have established that Withey died from the effects of bichloride of mercury.

In their theory they are substantiated by Dr. H. E. Moss, Jackson county coroner.

He said that a quantitative analysis was not made at an autopsy, but that qualitative tests were so positive there was no doubt the poison caused Withey's death.

Chili Blamed

Mrs. Withey contends her husband died after he had eaten chili. She said she and her son, Billy, also had partaken of the food, but had suffered no ill effects.

Detectives have questioned, and caused to be held as a material witness, Merle McAllister, who has been attentive to Mrs. Withey and who has given presents to Billy, they say.

McAllister said Mrs. Withey told him last spring that she intended to divorce her husband.

Mrs. Withey said her husband was a chemist for a dairy company. She said she married Withey when she was 15—ten years ago—in St. Joseph, Mo.

When Billy Withey, 7, above of Kansas City, Mo., boasted he was to have "a new daddy," police became suspicious and arrested his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Withey, below, charging her with the death of her husband, William, by poison.

Gasoline Prices In America Vary From 10 To 27 Cents

Gasoline prices in the United States range all the way from 10 cents a gallon to 27 cents for straight run and from 13 cents a gallon to 29 cents for high test gas according to a census made by the American Automobile association.

The census was made on November 22 at 950 automobile clubs throughout the country. The lowest price of 10 cents for straight run and 13 cents for high test was found at Peoria, Ill., and the highest was 27 cents for straight run and 29 cents for high test at Phoenix, Arizona.

Prices in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey varied 11 cents on both varieties of gas. The lowest price for straight run being 12 cents a gallon and the highest being 23 cents. High test run from 18 cents to 29 cents.

In some places with a distance of only 10 or 15 miles a difference of as much af four or five cents. Proximity of sources of gasoline appeared to be a negligible factor in determining current prices as often the price was higher near the oil fields than where it had to be hauled hundreds of miles.

College Y. W. C. A. Christmas Party

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON Pa., Dec. 15.—Y. W. C. A. of Westminster College held its annual Christmas party last night in the parlors of the Hillside dormitory between the hours of 6 o'clock and 8 o'clock. A large number of the girls of the college were present.

A large Christmas tree, Santa Claus, and a general exchange of presents added much to the Christmas cheer. A special prepared program of games and stunts was arranged by the committee in charge. Refreshments were served by the eats committee. Miss Evelyn Winger of New Castle, president of the organization was in charge of the committees of the affair.

Holidays During 1928 Jump For Leap Year

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The calendar for 1928 shows the effect of Leap year by causing a jump of two days in the days on which important holidays and anniversaries fall, it was revealed today in a synopsis of dates covering important occasions scheduled for the coming year as compiled for the International News Service. February, the month which causes the quadrennial difference in calendars, starts Wednesday and the extra day, the 29th falls on that same day of the week.

Janary 1, 1928, comes on Sunday, always taking its lead as to day from the preceding Christmas. Lincoln's birthday comes on Sunday with Washington's birthday on Wednesday and St. Patrick's Day on Saturday. Spring begins March 20 at 2:45 p. m. April Fools Day comes on Sunday. Good Friday is April 6 and therefore Easter is on the 8th. Memorial Day is on Wednesday and, as always the Fourth of July follows suit. Summer begins June 21 at 10:07 a. m. Labor Day comes on September 3 and Autumn September 23 at 1:06 a. m. Columbus Day (October 12) is on Friday and November will have Election Day on the 6th, Armitice Day, (November 11), on Sunday and Thanksgiving on the 29th. Winter will arrive December 21 at 8:04 p. m. and Christmas of 1928 falls on Tuesday.

Search Reveals Gigantic Gun Hidden Under Coat

(International News Service)

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 15.—His suspicions aroused by the increased dimensions of Lee Brown's chest, a policeman at a local dance hall arrested him.

At the police station, a search produced what officers termed the largest automatic revolver found in this region. The weapon, loaded with ten bullets, was worn across Brown's chest, ready for action.

When police began to continue their search, Brown protested. "I only carry one of those things at a time," he said "I find one cannon is enough."

ZENITH
LONG DISTANCE RADIO

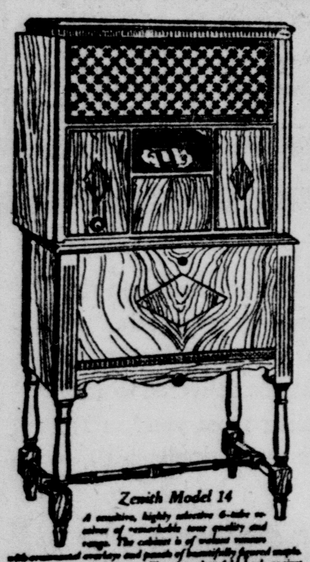
Why does not Zenith build a radio receiver to sell for less than $100.00?

Zenith has the laboratory, the engineers, the organization and the financial resources to build any kind of radio. Then why not go below the $100.00 price?

The answer is that the Zenith standard of quality cannot be built into a receiver of lower price. Zenith will not put its name to a receiver that is not highly selective, powerful, faithful to the entire tone scale and wrought with surpassing skill and durability.

Performance comes first in Zenith—there is no compromise. The 6-tube set has six working tubes instead of five working tubes and one balancing tube. Instead of three condensers the 6-tube set has four—the 8 and 10-tube sets have five and six condensers respectively.

In every detail the same exacting standards are carried out. Zenith costs more but it does more. Hear Zenith and you will agree that Zenith is unsurpassed.



Zenith Model 14

A seventeen, highly selective 6-tube receiver of remarkable tone quality and range. The cabinet is of selected walnut, with ornamental overlays and panels of beautifully figured maple. The doors do not stand open like wings, but fold flush against the sides of the cabinet, out of view. Model 14 will bring you all that is fine in radio.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

This year there are berries on the holly wreathes. Shiny red berries: berries that look almost good enough to eat. And the ground pine is green. But of later years many substitutes for the originals have appeared. Now one can buy wreathes made of some sort of paper, with electric lights in the center, in lieu of candles. Then there are many other things: streamers of jolly red and green papers; and huge red bells, all scarlet and tinsel.

Sothething that seldom is seen is a milk wagon by daylight. Yet yesterday afternoon one trundled up Washington street hitched to the back of a truck. Evidently it had broken down somewhere in the wee small hours, and was being brought back.

"Made in Germany" toys seem to have done a comeback. And along with the German toys, there are those from Czecho-Slovakia, from France and Japan. Even Chinese toys are now being bought by American people.

What one woman gives to another this Christmas season need no longer remain a mystery. For many were trapped Tuesday afternoon buying handkerchiefs and these flowers that women are prone to wear on their coats. So that is what Aunt Hanna will be giving to Mama or Sister Kate to Cousin Ethel.

Standing on the corner of Mill and Washington streets, one is sometimes at a loss to know what it is all about. Where do the people come from and where do they go? That tall man, with a derby hat and a moustache like a walrus—where is he going? And that girl in the wine colored coat, who just high hatted Pa Newc, where is she going? Women in imitation fur coats, wheeling perambulators—where do they come from and where do they go? And who cares, much?

Charlie Thomas deserted his post on Washington street while it was raining. But his card, his chair and his cup were there, pleading for the people to make it a merry Christmas for him. And, as Pa Newc watched, many people dropped coins into the cup.

Lindy is no longer an individual. He is an institution, one typifying success in American aviation.

Threatened flood of Tuesday night has again centered attention on flood prevention plans here. Following the big flood of 1913 the situation was surveyed exhaustively by experts and a plan of action presented. Since that time the Mill street and Jefferson street bridges have been built, raised above the height of the former bridges, and a retaining wall erected along part of the stream between Mill and Jefferson streets. These were in conformance to some of the recommendations. There were many others that have never been carried out.

Offer of the Electrical League to supply current for lighting of Community Christmas trees about the city should stimulate activity in this line. Last year there were quite a number of community trees about the city and this season there will probably be many more as a result of the offer of the league.

Robberies are becoming all too numerous in this city. Some drastic round-ups are about due.

Business Better Campbell Says

Sheet & Tube Head More Optimistic; 60,000 Bonds Signed In One Day

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 15.—"Business is better," President J. A. Campbell of Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., said yesterday after more than a week spent in the east.

"We are receiving more orders and inquiries have also improved. We will get higher prices for our products during the next quarter and considerably more in the second quarter.

Mr. Campbell expressed the opinion that the new sheet prices will "stick" and a determination of the industry to get a price which would yield reasonable and fair return.

"Many producers are working today below cost," Mr. Campbell said. "This situation cannot last long."

Referring to the recently concluded sheet steel merger, Mr. Campbell said that it will benefit the entire industry.

Most of the Sheet & Tube officials spent last week in New York in connection with the issuing of the $75,000,000 bond issue. At yesterday's directors' meeting a number of resolutions had to be passed to conform with all legal requirements.

"The bonds have been all sold to inyestors," Mr. Campbell said. "That is the proof of the regard in which Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. stands today in financial and investing circles."

Walter Meub, secretary, and W. J. Morris, vice president, signed 60,000 bonds in one day in New York last week.

The money derived from the sale of the bonds will be used to retire all the present bond issues of Sheet & Tube Co. The balance will be turned into the treasury.

It is a curious fact that President Coolidge is today the only living Vice-President. Of his twenty-eight predecessors not one survives.

Coast Guards Nab Rum Runner Headed Toward Toledo, Ohio

(International News Service)

MONROE, Mich., Dec. 15. — A boatload of "Christmas cheer" said to be worth $15,000 was in possession of the United States coast guards here today, following a two mile chase in which one of the alleged "rum-runners" was wounded and another captured.

The wounded man, Alfred Raymond, 27, of Toledo, is in a hospital here under heavy guard. His brother, Justine, 30, is held by the Marblehead coast guard base.

The boat was a 54-foot tug, and was believed enroute to Toledo. It was said that the liquor came from Canada.

Hidden Money Is Missed By Slayers

SUTTON, W. Va., Dec. 15.—The murderers of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson T. Harris, aged Laurel Run couple, overlooked $752 when they neglected to search the farmhouse after killing the farmer and his wife on November 29.

This came to light when a search of the premises revealed a bag containing $752 in Mrs. Harris' bedroom. The gunmen who lay hidden in a woods and shot the two old people as they emerged from their home, are believed to have obtained $600 in money from the person of Mrs. Harris, but failed to rifle the building itself. The money was brought to Sutton and deposited in a bank.

Highway Impassible But For Help Given

The New Castle-Beaver Falls improved highway was impassible yesterday as a result of the recent rains and resulting flood condition of the Beaver river in the vicinity of Jenkins Arch. The highway was under several feet of water at this point all day yesterday and was impassible except for the assistance given by the state highway department. The department not only had a truck on hand to pull machines through the water, when necessary, but also a state highway patrolman to warn motorists and direct them how to avoid the point of trouble.

Girl Being Held For Blackmail

GREENSBURG, Dec. 15.—Nellie McCracken, 16-year-old domestic, was in jail here today charged with blackmail, it being alleged by state police that she mailed a letter to John Seger, wealthy Ligonier coal operator and lumberman, demanding $5,000 on threat of death if the money was not forthcoming. William B. Smith, 50, also was in custody, charged with being an accessory to the alleged plot.

Seger received the letter, which was unsigned, on December 5. It stated that the money was to be placed in a certain secluded spot, but gave no time for deposit of the $5,000. Seger turned the letter over to state police, who arrested the girl and Smith at a mountain cabin near here. Smith resided with the McCracken family.

Smith and the girl will be given a hearing tomorrow.

Scientists Sued By Editor For $46,500

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—Six scientists and professors whose achievements fill columns in "Who's Who", are named defendants in a suit for alleged violation of contract, filed in quarter sessions court here by Dr. John A. Detlefsen of Swarthmore.

Dr. Detlefsen in his complaint says he was discharged as associate editor of Biological Abstracts last May without cause or justification but that his services were accepted until October. He seeks $46,500 as back salary.

$100 Cloaks Stolen At Church Bazaar

WOLCOTT, N. Y., Dec. 15.—State troopers were called out to guard the doors when several new cloaks valued at $100 were found missing while the Philathea class was holding a bazaar at the Baptist church. Everyone within was searched and nothing was found. Now all strangers in town are objects of suspicion.

Would Transfer Vare Probe Case To Committee

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15. — The Senate Elections Committee would be given complete charge of contest filed against Senator-elect William S. Vare (R) of Penna., by his Democratic opponent, William B. Wilson, under a resolution introduced today.

The resolution, which would take the Wilson contest away from the Reed Slush Fund Committee, was referred to the committee on audit and control of contingent expenses, a parliamentary step, necessary to secure its adoption. This blocked debate on the resolution, although Senator James A. Reed (D) of Missouri, sought to oppose one minor provisions of the resolution.

Superintendent Convinces Children Of Miners Their Walkout Is Ill-Advised

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Dec. 15.—Strike of union miners' children at the Rose Valley grade schools was halted in its embryonic stages Wednesday when Superintendent George Roach persuaded the pupils to return to class.

Started early this week in protest against the attendance of non-union miners' children at the school, the strike was settled at a conference today.

Superintendent Roach urged that they forget differences.

The children agreed to confer with their parents at the conclusion of the lecture, and their decision to return was made known soon after.

The Rose Valley school is located near Adena and the Rose Valley mine, operated on a non-union basis. Until this week pupils of the school had attended classes without any apparent ill feeling, Superintendent Roach said.

Oklahoma Supreme Court Denies Four Legislators Review

(International News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Dec. 15. —The supreme court of Oklahoma denied a rehearing in the case brought by four Oklahoma legislators, who led the secret session which on Tuesday impeached Governor Henry S. Johnston and two state officials.

The court affirmed its decision that the amendment under which the legislature impeached Governor J. C. Walton in 1923 was unconstitutional.

Estimate 16,000 Dead And Wounded In Canton Rioting

(International News Service)

HONG HONG, Dec. 15.—The dead and wounded in the three days reign of terror at Canton were estimated today at 16,000. Of this number about one third were killed. Many of the wounded have received no medical attention owing to the absence of hospital space and the lack of sufficient doctors.

Major Downing Chastises The Cheyennes

WHEN REPORTS OF INDIAN DEPREDATIONS AGAINST THE RANCHES OF WHITE SETTLERS CONTINUED, THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES OF COLORADO RESOLVED TO TEACH THE RED MEN A LESSON. IN MAY, 1864, MAJOR DOWNING SET OUT FROM DENVER WITH A SMALL FORCE TO STRIKE A BLOW AT THE CHEYENNES.

DOWNING'S SCOUTS LOCATED A CHEYENNE VILLAGE ON THE RANGE, AND UNDER COVER OF NIGHT A CORDON OF ARMED MEN WAS THROWN AROUND IT. STEALTHILY THE SOLDIERS CREPT TOWARD THE UNSUSPECTING INDIANS.

THE COMING OF DAYLIGHT WAS THE SIGNAL FOR THE ATTACK. THE TROOPERS CLOSED IN, POURING A DEADLY FIRE INTO THE LODGES, AND KILLING OR WOUNDING FIFTY-SIX INDIANS.

THE SURVIVORS FLED IN TERROR, AND DOWNING'S MEN BURNED THE VILLAGE AND ROUNDED UP A HUNDRED HEAD OF CATTLE SAID TO HAVE BEEN STOLEN BY THE INDIANS FROM THE WHITE RANCHERS.

National Committee To Draft Uniform Traffic Regulations

Uniform and scientific standards of traffic regulations in American cities and towns will soon be given in a tentative draft by the Hoover National Committee on Municipal Traffic Ordinance Regulations, according to William E. Metzger of Detroit, Mich., chairman of the committee.

This tentative draft of a municipal ordinance, Mr. Metzger hopes will be adopted, at least in its basic ideas, by the great majority of American cities and municipalities.

Asked what the specific benefits of a model municipal traffic ordinance for the whole country would be, Chairman Metzger made the following six points:

"First, a uniform ordinance would certainly make enforcement easier and enforcement is one of the difficult problems today. Second, it would be less strain on the drivers of all vehicles and thus destroy the psychological hazard due to the bewildering diversity of regulation now existing. Third, it would facilitate the movement of traffic and permit more advantageous use of the limited area available to cities and towns, thus reducing the huge economic losses due to traffic tie-ups. Fourth, it would help the free circulation of the automobile throughout the country and promote motor touring, which is unquestionably rendered less pleasurable by reason of a multiplicity of regulations existing from hamlet to hamlet, town to town and city to city. Fifth, it would render possible greater use of the car in cities and increase the benefits from ownership and promote the growth of our big automotive industry and its auxiliaries. Sixth, and far more important than anything else, scientific and more or less uniform regulations would save lives and lessen the gigantic national toll of traffic accidents and fatalities."

The Way of the World

By GROVE PATTERSON

THE FIRST STEP.

A trusted official in an Ohio city goes to jail. He is nearly $30,000 short in his accounts. Confesing, he says he took the first step five years ago when he had a smaller city job and embezzled just $40.

"I expected to pay it back" he said, "but it grew too fast for me."

"There is a fatal tendency in all living things to keep moving in the direction in which they have started. Starting in the wrong way we keep going in the wrong way unless we make a definite effort to turn about.

STARTING RIGHT.

The same tendency in life that keeps us going wrong once we have started in the wrong direction, works both ways. Start definitely in the right direction and it is increasingly easier to keep going in that direction. Save a little money and it is increasingly easier to save more money. Habit is more than a bad master. It can be made into a powerful servant.

RUBBER.

You read of progress on the part of German scientists in making rubber from a potato or starch base. Synthetic rubber has been produced before. Usually the product has been inferior to regular rubber or the cost of production has been too great. But conditions will change. Labor in the rubber fields can be had for 30 cents a day. That sort of thing will not go on always. Scientists will do well to continue their experiments for making many things that are now grown.

RESEARCH.

Industrinal corporations and the federal government are spending 200 million dollars a year for industrial research. Corporations spend two dollars for every dollar spent by the government. The government has to spend so much for powder and battleships that it is handicapped in its usefulness. Research means improvement—improvement of the world in which we live.

A STRANGE DECISION.

Just before Lincoln was nominated for the presidency he was offered the position of general counsel for the New York Central railroad. The job was to pay $10,000 a year. Lincoln said to the official who made the offer:

"What could I do with $10,000 a year? It would ruin my family to have that much income. I don't believe I had better consider it."

That seems a strange decision. In the case of many men today as well as in 1860 it would be a wise judgment.

Grant More Time To Beaver County To Erect Bridge

By GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of the News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—The Board of Beaver County Commissioners would be granted an extension of one year in the time for filing plans and commencement of construction on the bridge across the Ohio River between Rochester and Monaca under the terms of a bill introduced in the House by Congressman J. Howard Swick of Beaver Falls.

The bill, which has been referred to the Committee in Interstate and Foreign Commerce, extends the time limit of a bill passed in 1926 granting authority of the Beaver County Commissioners to construct the bridge.

Original bridge plans were rejected by the army engineers on the grounds that they did not provide ample height from water level to the roadbed for the passage of vessels on the river.

A bridge is now located between the two municipalities but the county intends to raze this and construct a new modern span.

One Killed, Score Injured In Blast

FOSTORIA, O., Dec. 15.—One man was killed, two were reported fatally hurt and a score of others received minor injuries in a gas explosion which wrecked the new $1,000,000 National Carbon company plant here late yesterday.

Mike Seckera, 33, pipefitter of Cleveland, was killed. Lloyd Kutcher, 30, and Eddie Ryan, 38, electricians, both of Cleveland, were seriously injured. John Davis, 34, pipefitter of Cleveland, was seriously burned, but is expected to recover.

Officials were investigating to determine the cause of the explosion.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MENU HINT

Roast duck is a satisfactory dish to replace the Christmas turkey or goose, and it is also a good Sunday or "company" dish. An orange sauce is recommended for serving with duck. Possibly a plain cranberry jelly or sauce would be better with this menu, as the duck is stuffed with raisins. I include the conserve recipe as you may like to use it some other time.

Fruit Cup
Roast Duck with Apple and Raisin Stuffing.
Sweet Potatoes Cranberry Conserve
Peas Parker House Rolls
Pumpkin Pie Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Roast Duck and Dressing — One duck, one cup soft bread crumbs, one cup chopped apples, one cup raisins (cut in pieces or seedless), one tablespoon minced onion, one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon pepper, two tablespoons melted butter, two slices fat salt pork.

Dress and clean the duck. Mix all the ingredients for the stuffing, moisten with hot water and place in the duck. Place on a rack in roasting pan with slices of pork on the breast. Dredge duck and bottom of pan with flour and place in a hot oven.

When it has browned, add a cup of hot water and baste every 15 minutes. Take two hours for baking. During the last 15 minutes of roasting sprinkle with salt and pepper. When done remove duck to hot platter and prepare orange brown sauce in roasting pan and garnish with parsley.

Orange Brown Sauce — To the brown liquid remaining in the roasting pan add one cup of orange juice and one teaspoon of grated orange rind. Prepare a thickening of flour mixed until smooth with cold water. Bring liquid to boiling point, add the thickening until of right consistency, boil for one minute, and strain into a hot gravy bowl.

Cranberry Conserve, a la Boheme— Two cups cranberries, half cup orange juice, half cup sugar, 1 cup raisins, one teaspoon grated orange rind, half cup almonds, broken in pieces. Mash berries, add orange juice, cook until skins separate. Rub through coarse sieve, add raisins and sugar and cook 15 minutes, add rind and nuts, and cook until thick. Serve very cold.

Catholic Priest Is Interested In Flight To Rome During 1928

Father James R. Cox Of Pittsburgh To Accompany Girl Aviatrix And Pilot

Starts Combing District For Sufficient Funds To Finance Proposed Trip

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—Father James R. Cox, 41-year-old Catholic priest here, today started lining up financial backing to enable him to accompany Miss Myrtle Brown, Omaha, Neb., aviatrix, on a non-stop flight to Rome.

Father Cox will invest a considerable sum in the enterprise, if he can secure sufficient support to make the flight a reality, he told International News Service.

The Catholic prelate stated that he first approached Miss Brown when he read that the aviatrix was planning a non-stop flight to the seat of the Roman Catholic church. He said he offered to assist the flyer financially if she would permit him to accompany her on the flight.

Miss Brown's reply was received here yesterday, the priest said, and he started today to ascertain the amount of financial backing he could secure in this city for the flight.

Asked if he planned to canvass the Pittsburgh Catholics on the question the priest stated that he believed the greater portion of his backing probably would come from non-Catholics.

Miss Brown advised the prelate that it would cost in the neighborhood of $33,000 to prepare a plane that would accommodate him, a pilot and herself. Father Cox said he would try to raise more than half of the amount in this city.

People seem astonished when gangsters fight among themselves, but they aren't first allies to do it.

the choir will sing several appropriate Christmas anthems under the direction of the choirmaster, W. R. Short, assisted by Mrs. Anna Pyle, organist.

First Presbyterian: A large chorus choir will sing at the morning service at 11 o'clock on Christmas day several appropriate numbers, led by Mrs. Paul Browne Patterson, organist and choir leader. In addition to the special numbers there will be selections on the 'cello, violin, organ and piano. At four p. m. there will be the annual White Gift Christmas given by the Sunday school.

St. Paul's Lutheran: On Christmas morning at seven o'clock there will be a beautiful Christmas service. The choir will sing a number of selections at this time. In the evening the Sunday school, assisted by the choir, will give a program.

Third United Presbyterian: The vested choir of 40 voices will present the cantata, "The Dawn of Christmas", on Christmas night, in charge of the church chorister, David West, assisted on the organ by Mrs. Frances N. Eakin.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 27, the children of the Bible school will have an entertainment.

Bethany Lutheran: A Christmas pageant will be given by the Sunday school on Christmas night. They will be assisted by the church choir.

Highland United Presbyterian: The beautiful Christmas cantata, "The Coming of the King", by Dudley Buck, will be presented on Christmas day at four p. m. by a double quartet composed of Miss Helen Allen and Mrs. Rankin Johnson, sopranos; Miss Margaret Preston and Miss Rebekah Crawford, altos; Harry Urmson and Mr. Johnson, tenors, and Luther Braham and James Guthrie, bassos. The church organist, Mrs. J. L. Reed, will preside at the organ and the cantata will be sung under the leadership of Prof. W. W. Campbell. Mrs. Wayne Koppes will assist on the piano.

First United Presbyterian: An attractive musical program will be given on Sunday morning, Christmas day, taking the place of the 11 o'clock service. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Scott McCaslin, Miss Helen Ewing, Mrs. Bess Gaston, Thomas Hartman and David Hopkins, assisted by Mrs. Harvey Brenner, church organist and director of the choir.

Emmanuel Baptist: The children of the Sunday school will present a pleasing program in keeping with the Christmas season on Christmas Sunday evening. The church chorister, Charles Richards, will be in charge of the program.

Trinity Episcopal: A musical program of Christmas numbers is being arranged by the organist and choirmaster, Prof. Paul Browne Patterson, for the services on Christmas day. A large choir will sing.

First Methodist: A full choir, led by the chorister of the church, Prof. W. W. Campbell, will sing a Christmas cantata on Sunday evening, Dec. 25, with Mr. Taylor at the organ. It is quite probable that the choir will be vested for the first time at this service.

St. John's Lutheran: Children of the Bible school will present an appropriate and fitting program on Christmas night, assisted by the church organist, Miss Lena Richards.

Spirit Of St. Louis Whirs Out 34,905 Miles For Flyer

NEW YORK, Dec. 15. — Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, in completing his 2,000-mile flight to Mexico City Wednesday, has flown approximately 35,000 miles since he left San Diego, Cal., last May, to start his flight from New York to Paris.

His total flying mileage to date would take him almost one and one-half times around the world, if he followed the equator.

The Lone Eagle's flights since last May were:

San Diego to St. Louis, 1,500 miles.

St. Louis to New York, 950 miles.

New York to Paris, 3,625 miles.

Short hops in Europe, 430 miles.

Flights between New York, Washington, St. Louis, Ottawa, and other cities on his return to the United States, estimated at 4,000 miles.

Three months' tour of the country in the interests of aviation, 22,350 miles.

Washington to Mexico City, 2,000 miles.

Total, 34,905 miles.

Considering his average speed at 80 miles an hour, the famous "We" has been in the air approximately 450 hours.

Buffalo Family Of Three Wiped Out By High Tension Wire

Father, Mother And Son Die Of Electrocution In Trying To Install Radio Aerial

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 15.—Funeral services were being arranged today for the Fred J. Voltz family of three wiped out here late yesterday by a high tension power line while attempting to string a radio aerial. The father had climbed a power pole and was attempting to pass the copper aerial wire over the power line when the wire came in contact with the electric lines, electrocuting him instantly. His son, Joseph, 17, holding the other end of the aerial wire also was killed. The mother perished when she tried to remove the body of her husband from the wire. The radio was to have been a Christmas gift to Mrs. Voltz' mother, Mrs. J. H. Limberger visiting at Atlantic City.

Relief Cards Are Being Given Out

Welfare Committee To Extend Aid To Those Who Receive Them

Cards have been placed in the hands of various welfare workers and school teachers by the Home Relief committee, headed by Mayor William H. Dunlap for distribution among the needy.

The welfare workers and teachers who know where distress exists will present the cards to the needy who will apply at Relief headquarters, located in the store formerly occupied by Kinneys.

The storeroom on which the firm is still paying rent, has been donated to the committee and in it will be placed clothing and shoes which is being gathered.

According to the committee all persons need do when they receive the card from the worker is to present it. There will be no questions asked as to why they are in need.

High Basketball Team To Open Season Tonight

Grove City To Be Opponents

New Castle High Floor Team Ready To Start Long Basketball Grind

LINE-UP APPEARS MUCH IN DOUBT

New Castle high school basketball team, W. P. I. A. L. champion last year, will inaugurate the 1927-28 season tonight at the senior high gym by meeting Grove City high. The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

With football now history, the boys have turned their attentions to the floor game and have been practicing for the past two weeks. With the best material that has ever reported for basketball at senior high the outlook this year is more pleasing.

Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh has not given an inkling as to his starting lineup for tonight, but this is the writer's pick to start the ball game: Reider and Johnson at the forwards, Alexander at center and Ostrosky and Sillman at the guards.

According to word from Grove City, the Mercer countians are coming to New Castle tonight bent on taking the locals into camp. Coach Joe Hartman is reported as having one of the finest squads in recent years at Grove City and has had them hard at work the past few weeks. The floor game has for a great many years been the major sport at Grove City and the boys specialize in this sport.

The game tonight is merely a preseason affair and will have no direct bearing on the W. P. I. A. L. season.

Helen Wills To Play In Europe

(International News Service)

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 15. — Miss Helen Wills today announced that she had accepted an invitation from the United States Lawn Tennis Association to become a member of a two-woman team which will tour Europe, meeting teams in France, Germany, England and Belgium. These matches, it was announced, will be played prior to the Wimbledon championships. Miss Wills' teammate has not yet been selected.

Overlands-Marshalls Win Floor Victories

The Rick-Overlands defeated the Butler Spaides on the Y. M. C. A. floor last night by a score of 22 to 17, and the Marshalls downed the Temple Israel team 20 to 14 in the preliminary contest.

The Ricks went into the lead in the first quarter of the game and were never headed throughout the contest. The score at half time favored the locals 11 to 6. Paulsey with five baskets was the big star.

The Temple Israel team had the lead over the Marshalls in the first half of their battle by a score of 8 to 6, but fell down in the final two periods to allow the Marshalls to tally fourteen points to their six. Bissett led the attack for the winners.

The summaries:

Blitman Kayoes Datto In First

Fight fans, who went to the Rayen-Wood Auditorium in Youngstown last night, expecting ten rounds of fast action between Harry Blitman of Philadelphia, and Johnny Datto of Cleveland, were doomed to disappointment. Datto lasted just two minutes, being knocked out in the first round. They fought at 127 pounds.

Sportraits

Last season was the 25th for John McGraw as manager of the Giants. In that time he has given New York some great teams. He started in 1903 and the following year won his first pennant. All in all, he led the Giants to 10 pennants and came out on top in the world series three times.

Sport Review of 1927

BY NORMAN E. BROWN.

In Twelve Rounds—Including the Long Count—Round One

To say that the sport year of 1927 opened with a bang is cutting down the explosion to a squeak.

Stanford University and Alabama met on the gridiron before the year was 18 hours old and gave football fans the biggest thrill of a hectic football season prolonged through the holidays. The game ended in a 7 to 7 tie. The Pacific coast team had outplayed the southerners and was leading 7 to 0 four minutes before the game ended.

Then Jim Bowdoin, substitute guard on Alabama's line, broke through to block a Stanford punt. Four plays, in which Winslett, all-American star, led, carried the ball to Stanford's goal and Johnson shoved it over. Caldwell kicked the goal that tied the score. Then came the whistle.

And before the year was 24 hours old Swede Risberg, "Black Sox" outcast, had bared to Judge Landis a story of alleged throwing of games back in 1917 that rocked the baseball world to its foundations—and the subcellar below.

Swede's Story

Risberg told a tale of the White Sox players "chipping in" to a pot which was turned over to the Detroit players to "let" the Sox ride through a four-game series. In the hearing that followed and threw baseball into the worst light it has enjoyed since the 1919 world's series scandal was uncovered, the Detroit players involved insisted that the money was given them to play harder against the Red Sox—and not to lay down for anyone.

The players involved were exonerated by Landis.

(Note: At this point Strangler Lewis defeated Big Munn at Chicago and the public fell for the stuff again.)

The letters offered by Dutch Leonard at a profit of $20,000 to himself, had stirred baseball before the winter reached January 1 and before that month was over had brought more action.

Cobb and Speaker were eventually exonerated by Judge Landis. Ban Johnson's attack on Landis over the matter and his vitriolic denunciation of Speaker brought on another Landis-Johnson row and before the month ended Johnson had been virtually ousted as active president of the American League.

The Long Count

Tex Rickard took a week-end trip from New York to St. Louis to see Gene Tunney and the most important result of the trip was the long count Tunney received at Chicago.

Wyant Hubbard, former Harvard grid star, came right out in a magazine with mean remarks regarding Princeton's football ethics and Princeton adherents spent the next two weeks saying it wasn't so.

Football fans also were interested in the first of the gridiron changes that came—the resignation of Glenn Thistlethwaite as coach at Northwestern after a five-year reign. Dick Hanley, coach of Carlisle Indian school, succeeded him and his first year was a bust. Northwestern admitted it—and signed Dick for another year.

Some Trades

After sufficient publicity had been obtained, Rogers Hornsby signed to captain the Giants—at $40,000 a year.

Baseball fans got another morsel when the Washington club traded Roger Peckinpaugh to the White Sox for Pitchers Mangum and Thurston. No earthquakes. The Browns traded McManus to the Tigers for half a dozen players. Same result. The Yanks traded Aaron Ward to the Sox for Grabowski and Moorehart also.

Track athletics demanded attention when Edvin Wide, Swedish middle distance star and conqueror of the great Nurmi, came to America to show his stuff at indoor meets.

Willie Hoppe, who learned to shoot billiards while Iron Man Joe McGinnity was playing one old cat, won back the 18.2 balkline billiard title by defeating Eric Hagenblacher at St. Louis.

The Big Swim

America's first "channel" swim was pulled off by William Wrigley from Catalina Island to the Pacific coast mainland and was won by George Young, Toronto lad, who made his way to the coast in the side car of a second-hand motorcycle.

Harry Cooper, Dallas, Tex., golfing phenom, shook the golf world by the ears by romping off with the $10,000 open tournament at Los Angeles. A short time later he took Walter Hagen over at Dallas 10 to 9 during a sectional tourney there, giving the game its second thrill.

Three fights of interest were staged. Fidel La Barba, flyweight champ, successfully defended his title against Elky Clark, Glasgow, Scotland, and latest ring hope of the British Isles. The fight was staged in New York. LaBarba gave Clark a severe trouncing.

Joe Dundee, whose rapid rise had been checked by a one-round knockout at the hands of Eddie Roberts on the Pacific coast, got a second crack at Roberts and made him be good in 10 rounds.

Mike McTigue met Paul Berlenbach, the Astoria assassin, and knocked him hopelessly horizontal in the fourth round.

Penn-State Grid Team Ends Season

The Penn-State Service football team had a fairly successful season on the gridiron the past year, according to the records announced today. The team won five games, lost two, and tied two.

The Penn-Staters totaled 149 points against 19 for their opponents.

Following is the record of the team for 1927:—Penn-State 12, Croton 0; Penn State 3, Struthers 6; Penn State 6, Hillcrests 7; Penn State 0, Struthers 0; Penn State 67, Hubbard 0; Penn State 12, East Palestine 0; Penn State 6, Sharon Twin Cities 6; Penn State 31, Sharon Cardinals 0; Penn State 12, Hillcrests 0

All-Eastern Grid Players Start On Jaunt To Coast

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 15.—Andy Kerr, coach of the all-eastern football team which meets an all-western college eleven December 26 at San Francisco, five of the east's stars and the team physician, Dr. D. F. Donehoo of Washington, D. C., were scheduled to arrive in Chicago today to meet the rest of the squad. The rest of the party which left here last night included Frank Pauly, Bill Amos and "Jap" Douds, all of Washington & Jefferson; Claude Grigsby, Georgetown, and Saul Weinstock, Western Maryland tackle.

The Casa Savoia quintet will play the South Side team on Friday night at the House of Savoia gym, it was announced today. The Savoia boys were scheduled to meet the Speeces of Youngstown on tomorrow night, but the game was canceled. The Savoia Juniors will meet the Castletons in the preliminary game. The Savoia quintet will play the Marshalls on Monday night. For games call 2441R and ask for Sebastian Isabella.

Merchants Defrauded By Bogus Checks

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., Dec. 15.—Four local merchants were taken in by a woman giving her name as Mrs. Louis J. Jones of Valier, a small mining town near here, who passed $60 worth of bogus checks in this city. She made her escape before police were notified of her work.

Captain And Center

CAPT TUDOR LEWIS — JOHN CONNOR, CENTER

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 15.—When Westminster opens the collegiate basketball season on the home floor tonight against Slippery Rock State Teachers college, but two of the regulars from last year's lineup will be in the game.

These men are Captain Tudor Lewis of Farrel, guard, and John "Sparky" Connor of New York City, center. Last year Lewis scored 145 points during the season and was the unanimous choice for the all-conference first team. Connor, who is now at the pivot post, was a forward on last year's combination.

The other men who will start for the Titans are Glenn O'Donovan, Homestead, guard; Thomas McMeekin, Chicora, forward, and Kenneth Delahunty, Indiana, forward. McMeekin, who played on the varsity two years ago, was not in school last year. O'Donovan and Delahunty, two boys who entered college in February, played in a number of games toward the end of the season. With the start of the present campaign their work has gained them varsity berths.

Charles Ayers, guard, Canonsburg, and William Crowell, Sharon, two men who won letters last year, will no doubt be seen in action during tonight's tilt.

Dempsey To Fight Next Summer Says Promoter Rickards

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Tex Rickard is convinced today that Jack Dempsey will return to the ring next summer in an effort to regain his lost heavyweight laurels. The former champion wired the promoter that he was getting along well and was in excellent shape physically.

"However, I feel that Dempsey should have at least one fight before he undertakes to face Tunney again," said Rickard.

I. O. O. F. Team At Enon Show Promise

Enon Valley Lodge I. O. O. F. will be represented this year on the basketball floor by a team composed of former community players such as Andrews, former community center; Riddle, a former community center; Ted Zeh, a star of the 1925 team, Albright Bentfield, Russell, Shaffer, Fred Zeh and Madden.

With this group of players available the I. O. O. F. lodge should be able to place a strong team on the floor for the opening game. At a recent meeting Ted Zeh was elected captain and Ed Shaffer, manager. Teams desiring games should get in touch with Manager Shaffer.

New Castle Works To Clash With Marcellas Saturday

Coaches of the New Castle Works and Marcellas are sending their elevens through intensive grid practice daily for the last clash of the season at Radiator field, Saturday.

Both elevens have made a splendid record on the football field this season and it is said that when the whistle blows there will be many local grid celebrities in the lineup.

The game will start at 2:30 p. m. Officials to govern the clash are to be selected within a day or more. On account of the interest in the conflict a big crowd is anticipated.

Enon Valley Has Strong Basketball Team This Season

Community Team To Be Picked From Large Squad Of Players

Enon Valley community basketball team will have what is perhaps one of its strongest teams of recent years on the floor this season.

For the past 16 years Enon Valley has placed a community team on the floor and some seasons has been able to furnish two or three teams.

While handicapped to an extent this year by the loss of several players who are members of the local I. O. O. F. squad, the addition of Cook, Anderson, Eichert, Moore, Lindsur and Gable to the community squad gives promise of a heavier, stronger team than the one of last year. With Dannels, Avery Marshall and Sandy McRoberts of last year's squad available, local fans feel certain that this season will see a fast, well balanced combination representing the Community House.

At a recent meeting Hugh Marshall of Enon Valley was elected manager and at a later meeting Shorty Marshall was elected captain.

Tilden Through As Cup Player

Not Likely That William Tilden Will Compete In Davis Cup Match Next Summer

HUNTER IS ALSO ON OUTSIDE NOW

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Mr. Bill Tilden, who may or may not amount to something in deciding whether we recover or do not recover the Davis Cup, has announced himself as being willing to compete in Europe while our harrowing amateurs are doing the best they can in America. The writer has information that Tilden will not be a member of the team at all or in any part.

He got his information from a member of the Lawn Tennis Association and to divulge the latter's identity would be a breach of confidence.

"When a man pulls a gun on you, what do you do?" inquired an official of the Tennis Association today. "If you can get rid of him, you do. That's all I have to say about Mr. Tilden's speculation."

If that is not enough to indicate that Tilden and Hunter are through with Davis Cup play, then all we need is a bit of imagination to assume that a foreign power, with everything in its favor, might expect an assault from a young inexperienced American team.

What I mean to say is that Tilden and Hunter, right now, are out.

Whether they stay out or not is up to the United States Lawn Tennis Association. The latter makes no particular bones about the fact that Tilden and Hunter are persona non grata. The reaction from the Tennis Association is that if Mr. Tilden desires to play tennis abroad he may do so purely as an individual.

This puts the issue purely up to Tilden and Hunter. The latter is just a play-along boy, doing the best he can, and following Tilden's moves. Tilden is the abiding factor in this fight, if any, against the Tennis Association and the Tennis Association's reply is directed against him.

Somehow, Tilden has a phobia for antagonizing people. He has done it before with the Tennis Association. Maybe he will do it again. Maybe he won't get the chance. Maybe he won't, because it is barely possible the Tennis Association will go on and that Bill Tilden, greatest of all American players, if not in the world, will not.

Finish Examination Of Mercer Children

Eight Per Cent Of Children Suffer From Goitre; 41 Per Cent Have Bad Teeth

MERCER, Pa., Dec. 15.—Dr. S. J. Dickey has just completed the examination of 1545 school children in the four districts of Mercer, West Middlesex, Findley and Springfield townships.

In Mercer were examined 535 children; Springfield township 446; West Middlesex 373 and Findley township 191.

He reports that the other examining physicians of the county have finished their work making a total of 10,000 children examined this year in this county.

The other examiners are Dr. J. E. Ferringer of Stoneboro; Dr. J. M. Martin of Greenville; Dr. Nelson Bailey of Sharpsville; Dr. F. M. Bleakney of Grove City.

Out of this number of pupils examined by Dr. Dickey that medico reports but 8 per cent of the pupils with incipient goitre found to be so prevalent in 1926 reaching a percentage of one-fifth the total in some schools.

It is of interest that 23 out of 32 found to be afflicted with this disease were in the two town schools of Mercer and West Middlesex.

This is due to the fact that children in the country get more fresh vegetables than those in town. Of the total mentioned 20 per cent were found under-weight; 17 per cent with eye trouble; 41 per cent with bad teeth; 31 per cent with bad tonsils.

Puts Gun To Head And Pulls Trigger; Dies In Hospital Soon Afterward

(International News Service)

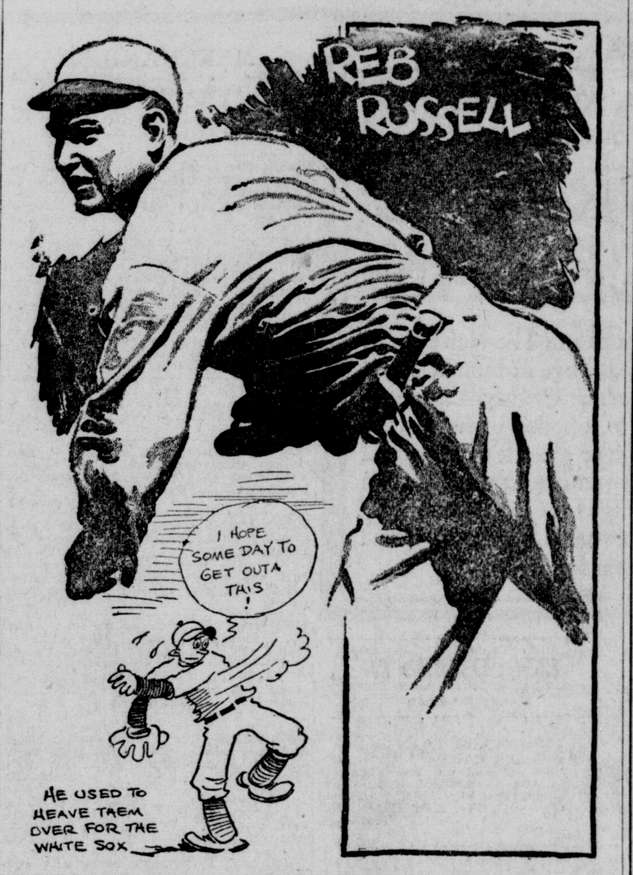
STATE COLLEGE Pa., Dec. 15.—"Now we'll see if it works" said Edward M. Pearson 19, of Lansdowne, placing a revolver to his head late yesterday afternoon. He died early today in the Bellefonte hospital.

Pearson and a chum Edward F. O'Neill of Johnstown were "limbering" up a 38 calibre revolver because the chamber was sticking. O'Neill said Pearson either forgot or did not know there was one bullet in the cylinder.

The bullet passed clear through his head and narrowly missed O'Neill.

SORDS POINTS

Pitchers Can't, But Ex-Pitchers Can



By JACK SORDS.

Babe Ruth isn't the only ex-pitcher who is making it miserable for his former brothers in the pitcher's box. Right in the American association we see the name of Reb Russell at the top of the batting list with the stuffed up average of .285. Reb, or Ewell if you must have his correct name, pitched a mean hook in the American league more than 10 years ago as a member of the Chicago White Sox. But when his arm was no longer able to bend them over the plate he turned himself into an outfielder where he improved his work with the stick which was always good for a pitcher.

Hitting has been his long suit for the last decade and the older he gets the harder he seems to hit them. In 128 games this year he was officially at bat 431 times driving out a total of 166 hits including 34 doubles, 4 triples and 10 home runs. He scored 80 times.

However his work in the garden wasn't anything to write home about. He finished way down the list with an average of .941 having 13 errors for the season.

But when a fellow socks the ball as Reb did this year what does it matter if he doesn't wind up the season with a 1000 fielding average?

Slayers Are Taken To Youngstown Jail Under Heavy Guard

BUTLER, Pa., Dec. 15.—Oakley Ross, 22, and Cecil Bell, 20, both of Annandale, Butler county, were removed to Youngstown yesterday in charge of Police Chief Leroy Goodwin. The men are accused in the murder of Patrolman Henry Clemens of Youngstown, and state troopers of Butler and Youngstown police have statements in which the men admit the crime.

Ross and Bell involved Arthur Hutchison of Struthers, O., in the affair which resulted in the death of Officer Clemens, and Hutchison is under arrest in Baltimore, where he went after enlisting in the United States army in Butler about 10 days ago.

Chief Goodwin took no chances in removing Ross and Bell to Youngstown, and he was accompanied by Detectives Thomas Bowser, Lewis Colabine, Owen Smith and Nick Dally all of Youngstown. The accused men were handcuffed together and placed in the middle seat of an automobile during the trip to Youngstown.

The removal of the men followed the securing of requisition papers from Governor John S. Fisher in Harrisburg Tuesday.

Two Jewish Stars — By Feg Murray

Jewish athletes have often reached the top in various sports, especially boxing, but lately there has been an uncommonly large number of Jewish football players on various teams around the country. Benny Friedman, Michigan's great all-around player of 1925 and '26, is the best known gridiron star of his race, but there are many others.

The University of California team that meets the strong Penn eleven in the California Memorial Stadium on December 31 is featured by the work of four Jewish boys: Eisen, the quarter-back; Lom and Marcus, halfbacks and Kaufman, a guard. Harold Kaufman weighs less than 170 pounds, yet is one of the hardest charging fightin'est guards on the Pacific Coast.

The trio of backs, Eisen, Marcus, and Lom, help make up Coach Nibs Price's "pony express" backfield and, by their speed and versatility, assure Coach Lou Young's Red and Blue warriors of a busy afternoon. Lee Eisen is a fine safety man, specializing in running back punts. "Brick" Marcus, the half-back who sometimes wears glasses while playing, is a dangerous open-field runner, and a hard man to stop through the line.

Bennie Lom is the most versatile of the trio, being the best punter on the coast, fast as greased lightning in the open, and a fine forward-passer. Lom's punting featured the game between California and the University of Southern California this year, one of his boots traveling sixty-five yards in the air. And Bennie brought 88,000 people to their feet in the Stanford-California game with an end run in which he took the ball to Stanford's three-inch line.

The California team is a sort of a family affair, as it contains two sets of brothers, Ralph and Jim Dougery, full-back and end, and Harry and Frank Hill, guard and half-back. Then Benny Lom and Brick Marcus are cousins!

Feg Murray Says—

Sometimes, as Notre Dame proved, a "Thundering Herd" turns out to be just a lot of contented cows.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Football schedules for 1928 are already drifting into the office. And along comes the list of games booked by the Army. The schedule is an interesting one, in addition to the usual games with the Navy and Notre Dame the Soldier officials have booked contests with Harvard and the Southern Methodists of Dallas, Texas.

The game with the southerners ought to give the southwest its first real chance to draw nation-wide attention. And strike the first blow at alleged discrimination in the annual scramble for all-American honors.

The game is to be played at West Point, Oct. 6.

The Southern Methodists have set a wonderful record over a span of several years. During the last five campaigns it has won 34 games, lost 5 and tied but 7. This record looms up as probably the best of the important colleges of the country, barring that of Notre Dame under Knute Rockne.

The game with Harvard and the Army is to be played at Cambridge and marks the first visit of the soldier lads to Cambridge.

Carleton college, booked for Nov. 17 at West Point, is located in Minnesota and, while not nationally known, has set a great record in football, having won the championship in its conference two years and finished runner up the third in three consecutive years.

Roger Peckinpaugh, new manager of the Cleveland Indians, is serving his novitiate as a manager but the enthusiasm of his friends over his possibilities as a manager drew him into the limelight as a prospective one some years ago.

Peck was then a member of the New York Yankees—in the early days of Miller Huggins' reign. The Yankees then were a powerful ball club mechanically at least but an inconsistent affair and there was constantly talk of "too many prima donnas" etc., due to the struggles of handling Babe Ruth and the uncalled for criticisms heaped on Miller Huggins' head would have driven a more tender hearted livered individual out of the managerial game.

Some of Huggins' friends and Peck's boosters found some delight in starting agitations to oust Huggins and make Peckinpaugh manager. When Peckinpaugh was finally traded to Boston and then moved to Washington it was said by the jolly gossip mongers that he was given the cane in New York to end dissention—and remove the thorne from beneath Huggins' saddle.

Peck is not of a plotting or jealous disposition. The stories no doubt were mostly figments of the imagination. But now Roger will have a chance to show his managerial ability against no less a team than the Yankees. And whatever views he may have regarding the team and the personnel of it might be interesting, were Peckinpaugh to fall into a reminiscent mood.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Strength and activity of the steel, motors and a few of the public utility stocks featured the early trading in the stock market today. Advances scored by the specialties at the opening were wiped out before the end of the first half-hour, and pools were again reported in retreat before the aggressive short selling of the professionals. Some of these pools are understood to have gone in beyond their depths, in a fruitless attempt to "corner the market on margin."

Industrial stocks were under selling pressure in the second hour and thetrend of prices was irregularly downward.

Game Protector Gets Many Rabbits

Sportsmen Can Assist The Protector In The Distribution Of Same

Frank Johnston, game protector in the Lawrence county district, has just returned from Westmoreland county, where he was engaged in connection with other game protectors in patrolling the districts in which deer are prevalent. A total of 284 legal bucks had been killed in that section up until Wednesday, when he left.

He today received seven dozen cotton tails or rabbits from Kansas for distribution in Lawrence county. This is but the first shipment of rabbits for the district. He expects to receive at least 1,500 rabbits.

These will be distributed in all sections of the county and as far removed as possible from the main and improved highways. The reason for this is the fact that many rabbits are killed every day by motorists on the improved highways.

Mrs. Essie Jowers, mother of five, co-defendant with Elisha Swift, her lover, going on trial Dec. 19, at Homer, La., for the murder of her husband, J. F. Jowers, beaten to death with a hammer as he lay asleep in his home at Haynesville, La. The courthouse at Homer is shown to the left above. Below, left, is Paul Swift, 16, threatened by his father with a beating if he did not aid in carrying away the body and who later confessed and led authorities to the hiding place. Below, right, is the car which was rented for $9 on the night of the murder and used, according to confessions of Mrs. Jowers and Swift, to take the body to the hiding place.

MILITIAMEN CALLED OUT IN IMPEACHMENT BATTLE

Governor Henry Johnston of Oklahoma has called out the national guard in his battle against the state legislature, which is seeking to impeach him on five charges. The situation recalls the impeachment of Jack Walton, "Cowboy Governor," in 1923. He called out the guardsmen to disperse a session of the legislature convened to impeach him. Mrs. O. O. Hammonds, Johnston's secretary, called by some legislators the "Colonel House" of the administration, figures in the discussion of the charges against the governor. Leaders of the fight against Johnston are Tom Johnson, T. P. Hill, Robert Graham and H. Tom Kight, members of the lower branch of the legislature.

Senate Probe In Mexican Intrigue Is Started Today

Committee Delves Into Published Documents On Alleged Sums Paid To Senators

SENATOR REED IS INQUIRY CHAIRMAN

William Randolph Hearst, Noted Publisher, Is First Witness On Stand

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15. — The senate's investigation into charges published by the Hearts newspapers that the Mexican Government ordered sums aggregating $1,215,000 paid to four United States Senators got under way here today.

The charges were backed up by the Hearst papers with secret documents which they asserted came from the archives of the Mexican Foreign Office.

The hearing started shortly after 10 o'clock in a committee room filled with witnesses and spectators. Senator Reed (R) of Penna., was chairman of the investigating committee.

Hearst Is Witness

William Randolph Hearst, publisher of the 26 Hearst newspapers, was the first witness. Mr. Hearst was sworn and gave his occupation as a journalist.

Reed asked the publisher whether he had the documents published in the Washington Herald and other Hearst papers, relating to Mexican charges.

"I think I have the originals," said Mr. Hearst.

"Will you turn them over to the committee?"

"Yes," responded Mr. Hearst, handing Reed a bulky envelope which Reed placed on the table in front of him.

Reed asked the publisher what method had been pursued in decoding some of the documents, which were in Mexican Government code. Mr. Hearst replied that he was unable to decode them but would have other witnesses who could.

How Documents Were Secured

"How did these documents first come to your attention?" asked Reed.

Mr. Hearst replied that he would be glad to tell provided he could refer to "one man" without mentioning his name. He explained that to mention this name might cause considerable embarrassment to the man in question as he was still in business in Mexico. Reed asked for the name "privately," and Mr. Hearst wrote it out on a slip of paper and gave it to the committee.

"This gentleman was in Mexico and he learned there were documents in the Mexican archives that indicated undue interference in the affairs of the United States," said Mr. Hearst. "He communicated that to Edward Clark.

"The documents seemed of tremendous importance," said Mr. Hearst. "I think they said they had submitted the documents to Ambassador Sheffield and that he believed they were authentic. They had also submitted the documents to the counsellor of the embassy and that he had thought them authentic."

Mr. Hearst said that two Mexican government clerks had actually brought the documents out of Mexico.

They were brought out, Mr. Hearst said, in two bundles. The second bundle, the publisher said, was delivered to his representatives in San Antonio.

"After you got this second bundle at San Antonio, what did you do?"

"The situation was increasingly serious because these documents affected the Nicaraguan situation and other matters," said Mr. Hearst. "I pondered what to do with them. I sent Mr. Clark with them out to the President at his summer home but the President did not wish to become acquainted with them."

Questioned specifically about the documents relating to senators, Mr. Hearst said he was convinced the money had never been paid to the senators. He said his employes had made an investigation to ascertain whether the money had been forwarded from Mexico to New York City, but without success.

"Have you any reason to believe that any senators accepted this money?"

"I have no reason to believe it at all," Mr. Hearst replied. "On the contray, I believe they did not get it."

"Have you any evidence to indicate the senators knew anything at all about these documents?"

"Nothing at all."

"How much in all did you pay for these documents?" asked Reed.

"About $15,000 or $16,000, I think," said Mr. Hearst.

Senator Robinson (D) of Arkansas, took up the questioning. He asked Mr. Hearst about his Mexican holdings.

"You have some holdings in Mexico, haven't you?" asked Robinson.

"I think I have," the publisher said, smiling, "I have some ranches and some mines."

Mr. Hearst said he could not describe the properties, but he estimated their worth at "around three or four million dollars".

Robinson next asked whether Mr. Hearst knew that President Calles had denounced the documents as forgeries.

"Yes, and I knew under what conditions he issued the statement," the publisher said, pointing out that the statement denied the existence of the documents.

Robinson touched on the "grammatical errors" in the documents, and Mr. Hearst explained them by saying "many of the Mexican government clerks are often not even graduates of the high schools of Mexico."

Erie Railroad Improvement Checks Flood

Had it not been for the fact that the Erie Railroad had the channel of the Neshannock creek, where it passes under its right of way and near where it empties into the Shenango river, cleared of all obstruction and widened in the past year, it is probable that the city might have experienced one of the worst floods in its history in the recent high water. It is all that prevented the steel mill from being crippled and put out of commission. Some water did get into some sections of the plant but not to the point of preventing the plant from operating. Had the channel been blocked as in former years, the water would have backed up all through the downtown district surrounding the Neshannock creek.

General J. Leslie Kincaid, president of the American Hotels, accompanied by Treasurer Col. Edward Olmstead, Technical Supervisor A. J. Haas and Supervising Manager W. B. Caum will arrive at The Castleton this afternoon on a tour of inspection of the American chain hotels in western Pennsylvania.

General Kincaid and Col. Olmstead expect to leave the city early Friday morning, but Mr. Haas and Mr. Caum will stay until after Christmas, states John L. Slack, manager of The Castleton.

Five Contagious Cases Reported

Five cases of contagion today were reported to Dr. William L. Steen, city health officer. It is the largest number presented in one day for several months. The cases are:

Lillian Evans, 7, 531 Electric street; diphtheria.

William Palmer, 6, 315 Mahoning avenue; mumps.

Joe Jusuitich, Jr., 8, 306 Mahoning avenue; mumps.

Mary and Hazel Clark, 10 and 9, of 303½ Preston avenue; mumps.

Slight Accidents Reported To Police

Martin Ketola of 10 West Leasure avenue, reported to the police today that he was driving north on South Mill street, when his machine struck a no parking sign near Water street, breaking off the same.

Elmer Minner of R. D. No. 5, reported that he was driving south on North Jefferson street Wednesday at Grant street, when his machine was in a collision with a car bearing Pennsylvania license 253-394, which was going west on Grant street and did not make the safety stop. Some damage was done.

R. W. Pitzer of 1005 North Beaver street, reported that as he was pulling out from the curb in front of the New Castle Hardware company, that street car No. 380 struck and damaged his machine.

When a young girl shows a young man a photograph of herself she expects him to ask for it.

For Gifts of Lasting Beauty

For Oriental Rugs are gifts that grow more precious as time goes by; they endure for years, with a style, a personality, that is not influenced by changing fashions. We offer you a selection of these rugs ranging in sizes from 3 feet 6 inches by 7 to 4 feet 2 inches by 6 feet 9 inches. The former prices of these rugs, in the scatter rug size, ranged from $52 to $95, but for the Christmas season, we offer these rugs at prices ranging from

$45.00 and $76.50

Inter Association Meet Is Postponed

Y. M. C. A. Will Meet New Brighton Sometime In January, Says Physical Director

Because of the sickness of the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at New Brighton, the inter-association meet between New Brighton and New Castle Y. M. C. A.'s has been postponed, says Walter Kirker, physical director at the local Y. The meet was to have taken place Saturday, December 17.

It is contemplated to run off the meet sometime early in January, states Mr. Kirker.

Scout Leaders Club Banquets Tonight

A dinner meeting of the Scout Leaders club of the Lawrence County Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at seven o'clock at East New Castle Grange hall at Rose stop on the Harmony line.

Anyone who cannot go by auto, declares Scout Executive J. Lee Calahan, can go by the Harmony car route, getting off at Rose stop.

And the Wise Men Brought Gifts

Gifts are expressions of love and friendship. They can not be given without sacrifice of time and money. This is the first week of our Christmas Club. Many have joined. Why not you?
